WELLCOME
LIBRARY

London: J. Rider, Printer, 14, Bartholomew Close.

ADDRESS.

The Publisher has much pride and great satisfaction in issuing the present Catalogue, and begs most respectfully to solicit the attention of his kind Friends and the Public in general to its extraordinary contents. It is by far the most extensive, interesting, and curious collection on sale in this or any other country, containing Books in most languages and classes of literature, and of all times, but consisting chiefly of the earlier portion of literature, the rarer and more curious of Books of the highest degree of interest, and as intrinsically valuable, many probably unique, and the greater portion of excessive and undoubted rarity, and for which even the public libraries will be searched in vain.

Bearing in mind the maxim of Dr. Johnson, that a great book is a great evil, the Publisher has endeavoured, by all means in his power, to keep his Catalogue within as moderate a compass as possible; he has carefully excluded all repetitions, and has condensed the descriptions wherever it was practicable; at the same time he has taken care to give such a description of each article as it deserves, and as its condition claims. The Books are all warranted perfect, generally in elegant ancient and modern bindings, and in the finest condition; but they are never described so unless such is actually the case. In regard to the prices, the Publisher feels assured that they will be found to be extremely reasonable, and a reference to and comparison with other catalogues, where at least any of the same Books are to be found, is respectfully solicited.

To point out in an advertisement of this description even a very small portion of the more curious and interesting articles, would be a matter of great difficulty, and the Publisher would hope, also useless; inasmuch as he trusts the Catalogue will be read with attention. To facilitate, however, the progress of those searching for particular subjects, or whose time for such pursuits is more limited, he has compiled a brief index of names of persons, places, and subjects, which do not immediately appear in the general alphabetical arrangement.

The Publisher begs again most respectfully to repeat, and he does so on the authority of long experience, that as this is the most interesting and curious Catalogue which can be offered, so he trusts it will be received by his friends with that kindness with which he has so long been favoured, and by the public in general with that attention which he flatters himself it will be found to deserve, and with the pleasure with which it is issued.

 Robortellus is called by bibliographers, "perhaps the acutest Greek scholar in Italy of his day." Dr. Heath's copy sold for 4*l*., Sir M. M. Sykes's for 2*l*. 14*s*., and Professor Porson's for 3*l*. 10*s*.

55 Æsopi et aliorum Fabulæ cum Vitâ per Rinucium, with many curious and highly spirited wood-cuts, folio, morocco elegant, gilt edges, an extremely rare and early edition, 6*l*. 6*s*. sine ulla nota.

 This edition is of such great rarity as to have escaped the researches of nearly all bibliographers. The wood-cuts throughout are of a most grotesque and ludicrous description, and are executed with a natural freedom and spirit that speak much for the talent of their artist.

56 Æsopi Fabulæ, Latinè, 4to. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, extremely rare, 2*l*. 2*s*. - sine ulla nota.

 This edition sold in the Celotti sale, in Paris, in 1825, for 81 francs.

Vineggia, per Gio. Ant. de Nicolini de Sabio, 1534

 This very rare volume is a metrical version, in ottava rima, of the Romance of the Paladins of France: the prose is well known under the title of Le Reali de Franza. Sold in Mr. Hibbert's sale for 3*l*. 3*s*.

139 Altobello.—Libro di Battaglia de li Baroni di Francia, sotto el nome dello Ardito et Gagliardo Giouine Altobello; nel qual molte Battaglie et degne Cose si possono vedere, black letter, wood-cuts, printed in double columns, 8vo. very fine and clean copy, morocco, gilt edges, 3*l*. 3*s*.
Venetia, per Bartholomeo detto l'Imperador, 1556

 The Metrical Romance of the story of the renowned warrior Altobello, is in high estimation among the lovers of that kind of literature. Besides the life and exploits of this hero, it comprises, likewise, the extraordinary deeds of king Trojano his brother, of Charlemagne, as well as of Orlando, Rinaldo, and the other Paladins. This edition is in the Florentine dialect, and is very scarce, being unknown to most bibliographers. The one printed in the year 1481 is in the Venetian dialect, and, therefore, every edition is almost a distinct work.

148 America.—The Profession of the Faith of Mr. J. D., sometimes Preacher of St. Steven's, Coleman Street, made publiquely before the Congregation, at his admission into one of the Churches of God, in New England, in Twenty several Heads, 4to. 3*s.* 6*d.* - - 1643

149 AMERICA.—ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THREE PRIVATELY PRINTED PAPERS (OF NEARLY EQUAL RARITY TO MSS. FROM THE FEW COPIES EXECUTED, AND THE GREAT CARE TAKEN BY THE SPANISH GOVERNMENT THAT NO COPIES ESCAPED INTO OTHER HANDS THAN THEIR OWN OFFICERS), AND FIFTY-THREE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT DOCUMENTS. THE PRESENT COLLECTION FORMED THOSE ADDRESSED TO THE COURT OF SPAIN BY THE COUNCIL APPOINTED FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SPANISH SETTLEMENTS IN AMERICA, &c. TO WHICH THEY RELATE, AND COMPRISE A COMPLETE HISTORY OF THEM FROM 1600 to 1622 INCLUSIVE, in 2 vols. folio, old red morocco, with the Colbert Arms on the sides, 21l. 1600-22

 The above collection of one hundred and seventy-five official documents is probably unique, and can only be appreciated by inspection. They comprise all the decrees and orders of the council, accompanied by an original map of Peru, Chili, Nicaragua, and New Spain, the adjacent islands and coasts, rivers, &c. by which it is bounded, including Mexico, Florida, La Plata or Paraguay, Panama, Brazils, Honduras, &c. &c. showing the forts, &c. necessary to be erected for the securing of these countries to the kingdom of Spain, which are most minutely stated by the official draughtsman F. Antonio Vasquese, the whole in his autograph. They ought to be preserved in some public library.

Venet. Calliergus, MCCCCXCIX.

 EDITIO PRINCEPS.—"Très rare et fort belle."—BRUNET. This book is described in the first volume of the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, pp. 263-5. "This rare and precious volume," says Dr. Dibdin, "is executed in a style of typographical elegance very much exceeding the productions of the rival press of Aldus." In the same place will also be found fac-similes of the printer's device and type. For symmetry of type, brilliancy of execution, and quality of paper, it may be termed one of the most beautiful specimens of the typographic art of the XVth century, which can be produced.

400 Augustini (Divi) Opera Duo, sc.
I. Augustinus de Arte Prædicandi. Mentelin, (MCCCCLXV.)

 This is a very rare edition. In the Bibliotheca Spenceriana Dr. Dibdin has admirably condensed all the information of his predecessors, and illustrated it by his own minute researches. He entitles it "a very early and curious specimen of typography." Braun numbers it among the "cimelia bibliothecarum." This is considered to be the earliest edition, and was "executed in 1465 at latest." The editor has prefixed a curious account of his work, and the reasons that induced him to entrust it to the care of Mentelin to print—"because he was a discreet man, and master of the art of printing," &c. At the Pinelli sale a copy was sold for 10*l.* 10*s.*

II. Augustini de Civitate Dei Lib. XXII.
Venetiis, à Gabriele Petro de Tarvisio, MCCCCLXXV.

503 Bayeux Tapestry, representing a Series of Events relating to Early English History, in seventeen large coloured plates, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*. (Published by the Society of Antiquaries at eight pounds ten shillings.)

 This tapestry, which is preserved at Bayeux, in France, represents the conquest of England, anno 1066. The tale is told in a succession of scenes which terminate with the Battle of Hastings; and the subject of each scene is indicated by a short Latin inscription. The public are indebted to the zeal and liberality of the Society of Antiquaries of London for this best series of engravings, which united would extend nearly seventy feet, executed by Basire, from admirable drawings by Stothard, coloured in imitation of the tapestry.—See Mr. Corney's most interesting Account of this Monument of History.

544 Bedfordshire.—Eighteen most Beautiful Drawings by Howlett, of Ancient Seals, illustrative of the County of Bedford, neatly mounted upon drawing paper, with borders, which serve as a frame to each, and which allows the drawing to be removed at pleasure without the use of paste or gum, by which drawings are so frequently spoiled, in one vol. 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, richly tooled, 10*l*. 10*s*.

 Nothing can exceed the beauty and veracity with which these exquisite drawings are executed; they require to be seen to be appreciated: their value to the antiquarian and historian is as great as medals, frequently serving to fix disputed dates, genealogies, &c. in matters of history and legal cases. Much additional interest is attached to the present collection by the nature of the document being given, to which the seal is attached from which the drawing is taken, and the place noticed where it is deposited, with particulars of the dates of each instrument, time of the foundation of each abbey, priory, monastery, hospital, nunnery, or other religious house to which the document relates. Among them are the seals of the abbey of Elvestow, and smaller seal of ditto, founded temp. William Conq. Wordon Abbey, seal and counter-seal, also the seal of the prior, founded 1135, ditto of the hospital of St. John the Baptist at Dunstable, Dunstable priory, Markyate priory, Markgate nunnery, Newnham priory, Chicksand priory, Bissemede priory, Caldwell priory, &c. mostly taken from the deeds of surrender in the reign of Henry VIII. and some much earlier; a most valuable volume to the county collector.

546 BEDFORDSHIRE AND THE NOBLE FAMILY OF RUSSELL.—A Collection of DRAWINGS AND ENGRAVINGS OF CHURCHES AND MONUMENTS, SEATS OF THE NOBILITY, ANCIENT MANOR AND OTHER HOUSES, INNS, AND OTHER CURIOUS BUILDINGS, illustrative of the County of Bedford; also, UPWARDS OF SIXTY DIFFERENT PORTRAITS OF THE SEVERAL DUKES AND DUCHESSES OF BEDFORD AND THEIR CHILDREN. The Drawings were executed in colours, with a view to publication, and as such their veracity is strictly preserved. The Engravings are the finest impressions possible to be obtained during many years' ardent research, and many of the portraits are of rare occurrence, the whole are in one large volume, atlas folio, elegantly bound in morocco, gilt edges, with broad borders of gold round the sides, 31*l.* 10*s.*

 The above beautiful collection will prove a great acquisition to any county collector, and form a volume of endless amusement for the drawing-room table; they contain drawings of the churches of Bedford, Dunstable, Potsgrave, Crawley, Hawnes, Campton, also views of Woburn Abbey, Battlesden Lordship House, Marston Park, Steppingley Park House, Clapham Manor House, ancient mansion at Sharpenhoe, Campton Parsonage, and various views in the different neighbourhoods, inns, bridges, Roman camps, monuments, and other interesting subjects; the portraits consist of the various earls and dukes of Bedford, various duchesses and other ladies, also other branches of the family; the duchess of Marlborough, admiral Russell, lord Orford, Wriothesley, earl of Southampton, the marquis of Tavistock, by Watson, after Sir Jos. Reynolds, proof before the arms were inserted, and many others by Vertue, Houbraken, Vanderbanc, Picart, Lombart, Williams, and other artists, some proofs, &c. &c.

Basileæ, Mich. Wensler, circa MCCCCLXXIV.

 This edition is described by bibliographers as being of extraordinary rarity. Laire observes, that the type of this impression is the same as that which is used 'pro Gasparini Pergamensis Epistolis,' by Biel and Wensler. Count Reviczky observes, that it is conjectured this edition was published about the year 1474. This copy cost its late possessor 6*l.* 6*s.*

719 Boethius.—Duplex Commentatio ex integro reposita atque recognita in Boetium de Consolatione Philosophica et de disciplina Scholastica, etc. 4to. scarce, 5*s.*

 This first and extremely rare edition of the united works of these reformers of the poetry and language of Spain, has escaped the notice of Antonio, Brunet, and nearly all other bibliographers.

758 Boscan Obras, y algunas de Garcilasso de la Vega, 4to. fine copy, vellum, extremely rare, 3*l.* 3*s.* - 1543

 "This SECOND EDITION is unknown to Nicholas Antonio, and all other writers on the subject." It is mentioned by Brunet in his Nouvelles Recherches, who was only able to quote the sale of one copy, which sold in 1830 for 5*l.* 5*s.*

759 Boscan, Obras y algunas de Garc. de la Vega, 8vo. morocco elegant, gilt edges, very rare, 2*l.* 2*s.* Salamanca, 1547

760 Boscan, Obras, y algunas de Garc. de la Vega, 12mo. fine copy, morocco elegant, 1*l.* 5*s.* - Anvers, 1569

 Bouterwek says, that Boscan is the first classical poet of Spain, and his language has continued a model for succeeding ages. In many instances, especially in the expression of the tender passion, he has exceeded even Petrarch.

" Sometimes he turned to gaze upon his book,
BOSCAN or GARCILASSO; by the wind
E'en as the page is rustled whilst we look,
So by the poesy of his own mind,
Over the mystic leaf his soul was shook."—Byron.

761 Boschæ (Rob.) Apologia περι του καλευβίου, seu de Spectatâ ac proba ingenuæ longeque nobilissimæ vitæ καταστασι, 8vo. vellum, rare, 7*s.* 6*d.* Rothomagi per le Roux, s. a.

 Prefixed to this tract is a short address by Melancthon, in which is stated, " Consensu eruditorum omnium, studiose lentor, probatur neminem quidquam insigne conari in rectis studiis posse, nisi qui simul Latinis Græca et Hebræa conjunxerit. Habes igitur hic apprime utilem libellum docti viri Jo. Boschenstain, etc." This volume is rendered a great curiosity, inasmuch as the Hebrew character, for which alone the volume was published, is filled up in manuscript, no Hebrew types having at that time found their way into Wittemburg.

763 Boschiana Bibliotheca, sive Catalogus Librorum qui studiis inservierunt viri celeberrimi Hieronymi de Bosch, prices and purchasers' names, 8vo. h. b. neat, 6*s.* - Amst. 1812

 Two most interesting historical volumes. When Henry VIII. engaged in war with France, in consequence of the League of Cambray, Sir Thomas Knevet was sent to the Coast of Brittany, with a fleet of 45 sail. After they had committed some depredations, a French fleet of 39 sail issued from Brest, under the command of Primauget, and began an engagement with the English. Primauget, finding his destruction inevitable, bore down upon the vessel of the English admiral, and, grappling with her, resolved to make her share his fate. At last the French vessel, "La Cordalière," blew up, and at the same time destroyed the English, "The Regent."

"This exploit was celebrated by a Frenchman, Germain de Brec, the above Germanus Brixius, in a Latin poem, styled 'Chordigeræ navis conflagratio,' in which, however, he was not content to extol the valour and bravery of his countrymen, but indulged in many opprobrious expressions against the English. The great Sir Thomas More ridiculed, in several of his epigrams, the extravagances of the Frenchman. Brixius, on this, grew exasperated, and, notwithstanding the earnest dissuasion of Erasmus, who was friendly to both, published his 'Antimorus,' answering Erasmus, though contrary to truth, that when he received his letters it was no longer in his power to suppress the publication. But when Erasmus wrote to the same effect to Sir Thomas More, imploring his forbearance, More, though vehemently and personally attacked, replied, 'I had hoped Brixius would produce something learned and witty, that might amuse even me his antagonist, who am not apt to take offence at a joke. At this rude and envenomed concoction I could but laugh, and was resolved to give no answer at all. Other men, however, in whose judgment with regard to my affairs, I have more confidence than in my own, judged otherwise. They were of opinion that there would be some who would read the Antimorus of Brixius without knowing the Chordigera, and my Epigrams; and that therefore it might be well done to publish all this together in one book, and thus to present it to the reader.'"

"And yet that thou mayest see, my Erasmus, (he wrote in a subsequent letter,) how much readier I am to obey thee than Brixius, know that, although at the receipt of thy letter my book was not only under the press, but already printed, I have yet bought in all the copies thereof, and keep them with me, with the exception only of the two copies sent to thee and Ægidius, and five others the printer had sold already." This was certainly no common trait of moderation, especially in an author; neither was there any doubt among the learned public to whom the victory belonged.

The letter from Erasmus to Brixius, and the answer of Brixius, are both printed at the end of the first volume.

827 Brocardi (Bonaventuræ) Palæstina seu descriptio Terræ Sanctæ solertissima, 8vo. vellum, scarce, 7s. Col. Agrip. 1624

1416 Chalkhill's (Jo.) Thealma and Clearchus, a Pastorall History, in verse, 8vo. fine copy, neat, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* - 1683

 A book of extreme rarity, which is rendered more interesting by having been published by Isaac Walton, who highly commends the author, and states him to have been the friend of Spenser. Walton has inserted two Ballads, written by his friend Chalkhill, in his Angler.—Corydon's Song, and the Fisher's Life. The author was a fellow of Winchester college, and lies buried in the south cloister of the cathedral. A Stanza of Chalkhill's Songs was translated and published by Dr. Johnson in his Works. See Oldys' warm description of the above volume in the Muses' Library. Sold in Midgeley's sale for 5*l.* 5*s.*

1439 CHARLES I.—A MOST EXTRAORDINARILY CURIOUS AND INTERESTING COLLECTION OF TRACTS, ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE LIFE AND REIGN OF THIS UNFORTUNATE KING, from 1626 to his Death in 1649, upwards of seven hundred in number, elegantly bound, in 15 vols. 4to. morocco, gilt leaves, 80*l.* 1626 to 1649

 The above collection must be seen to be at all appreciated; a brief title of the greater portion of the tracts may be had for inspection. It is presumed to be the most complete in existence, with the exception of one formed by the Rev. Dr. Bandinel, and the most interesting account of this period of British History known. It would furnish materials for a new Life, with facts not to be obtained from other sources.

1440 Charles I.—True Relation and Journall of the Manner of the Arrivall, and Magnificent Entertainment given to the High and Mighty Prince Charles, Prince of Great Britaine, by the King of Spain, in his Court, 4to. scarce, 1*l.* 8*s.* 1623

 This curious volume contains the names of the persons who attended the Prince to Spain, including the Marquess of Buckingham, Earl of Bristol, Sir Walter Aston, and Sir F. Cottington; also the names of the principal officers of the Court of Spain, account of the various amusements, interview with the Infanta, his intended consort, &c.

1441 Charles I.—Relation of the King's Entertainment in Scotland, on the 14th of August, 1641; as also the Copy of a Speech which the Speaker of Scotland spake to his Majesty; and how the Effigie of my Lord Traquier was carved in wood, and beheaded, after he was condemned of High Treason, to his disgrace and shame, although he saved his life by flight, 4to. fine copy, very scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* - 1641

1442 Charles I.—Colonel Sir Edw. Harwood's Life and Death, with the Advice of that worthy Commander, written by King Charles his command, upon occasions of the French King's preparation at Sea for invading this country; whereunto are added divers instructions, by the famous Earle of Essex, for the Security of the country, 4to. fine copy, 7*s.* 6*d.* 1642

1443 Charles I.—Memento; directed to all those that truly Reverence the Memory of King Charles the Martyr, and as passionately wish Honour, Safety, and Happinesse to his Royall Successor, 4to. fine copy, 10*s.* 6*d.* - 1662

1444 CHARLES II. AND THE COMMONWEALTH.—A MOST VALUABLE AND COMPLETE COLLECTION OF THREE HUNDRED AND THIRTY TRACTS, ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE LIFE OF THIS KING from 1642 to 1685, including many illustrative of the Commonwealth period, forming a most interesting body of history, bound in 12 vols. 4to. and folio, very neat and uniform, 25*l.* 1642 to 1685

 This important and valuable collection must be seen also to be appreciated; a brief list of the titles of each may be had for inspection.

1445 Charles II.—Academiæ Gratulatio ad Carolum II. Reducem, 4to. fine copy, vellum, gilt edges, 12*s.* - 1660

 The above interesting volume of poems on the Restoration, contains some by Dr. Isaac Barrow, W. Dillingham, Ant. Grey, Earl of Kent, H. Noel, son of Lord Camden, Dr. Ralph Cudworth, R. Kitson, J. Hawkins, J. Valentine, F. Marsh, W. and T. Leigh, A. Spencer, S. Smith, R. Chrichton, R. Neville, J. Duport, and many other members of the University; there are some poems addressed also to General Monck, afterwards Duke of Albemarle.

1446 Charles II.—Histoire des Nouveaux Presbyteriens Anglois et Escossois, ou est monstré la difference de leur Doctrine et Discipline en Religion, avec celle de France et autres Protestants: ensemble la vraye Origine des Troubles émeus par eux et leurs fauteurs contre le Roy et l'Eglise d'Angleterre, fine portrait of King Charles II. by Moncornet, 8vo. morocco elegant, gilt edges, rare, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* - 1660

1447 Charles II.—Multum in Parvo; Principles, Practices, and Transactions of the English Nation, 1681.—King Charles II. his Declaration to all his Loving Subjects, with His Majestie's Letter to General Monck, 1660.—Two Letters from the King to the Commons, and to Gen. Monck, 1660.—Letter from the Parliament to the King in Reply, 1660.—His Majestie's Letter and Declaration sent to the House of Peers, by Sir John Grenville, Kt. from Breda, 1660.—His Majestie's Letter to the Generals of the Navy, at Sea, 1660.—Various Proclamations for the Restoration of the King, and Government of the Kingdom, 1660.—Instructions to the Commissioners sent by the Parliament to the King, at the Hague, 1660.—A True Account of His Majestie's safe Arrival in England, 25 May, 1660.—Resolution of both Houses upon ditto, with the Earl of Manchester's Speech, with his Majestie's Reply; also the Speaker, H. Grimston's Speech, and His Majestie's Reply, 1660.—Votes respecting the King and Queen's Houses, Lands, Joynture, &c. 1660.—His Majestie's Speeches to both Houses of Parliament, 1660.—Collection of all Messages, Addresses, &c. from the House of Commons to the King's Majesty, with His Majestie's gracious Answers thereunto, from 1660, until the Dissolution of the Parliament in Aug. 1679.—Among other Proclamations is one for the burning by the Common Hangman, the Solemn League and Covenant, 1661.—Various Votes, Orders, &c. of the Parliament, Speeches of Sir Edward Turner, Speaker, and various Members of both Houses, Private Debates, in Manuscript, 1677.—Various other papers, &c. down to 1685, in one vol. folio, 4*l.* 4*s.*

 A most important and highly interesting historical volume, from the Collection of the Hon. Henry Fox, with his autograph, and enriched throughout with many MS. notes. The notes begin upon the receipt of the first letter from King Charles, brought by Sir John Granville, who the writer states was called in and received the thanks of the House, and £500. for his services, with the Proceedings and Orders of the House upon the same; the minutes and proceedings of the House for the reception of His Majesty are very minute; His Majesty's Letter to the Navy is noted with the Order of the House, to General Montague, to reply to the King, &c.; His Majesty's Speech to the Peers, July 22, is covered with the occurrences that took place in the House. The Proceedings in Church Affairs are also covered with the most minute Orders, and Proceedings, Resolutions, &c.; Notes on the intended marriage between the King and the Duchess of Modena; Copy of a note from the Duke of Buckingham to the Speaker, requesting to be heard in person before the House, on matters of national importance; in fact, the volume is full of interesting MS. notices of much greater value than the printed Tracts, &c.

 "Belle édition, recherchée."—Brunet.

The seventh novel in this curious collection contains the story on which Shakspeare founded his Othello, which renders it probable that the immortal bard read the Italian language, as no translation had then appeared, though Malone states that it must have been, as it furnished Shakspeare with the subject of his play.

 The late Mr. Heber, when in his nineteenth year, printed an edition of Silius Italicus, and this also of Claudian, with a view to the completion of the set of classics published by Barbou. Both are remarkable for the accuracy of the text; the latter, however, was not entirely completed, but by the kind assistance of the late Rev. Henry Drury, the last five leaves of the second volume, with the title and an address, have since been added; and the work is now offered to collectors as a correct edition of an admired classic author, and an interesting memento of the taste and scholarship of its accomplished editor. Only a limited number was taken off upon large paper for presents to the editor's friends.

 The productions of this printer, which are very few, and all of extreme rarity, are considered as forming part of an Aldine collection. Soncinus, as he himself informs us, in his edition of Petrarch in 1503, purchased his types from the same fount as Aldus, and thus the italic character was used at Fano almost as soon as by Aldus at Venice, who is generally considered to have been the inventor of it. Brunet calls this a rare edition: and from his manner of writing the colophon, it would appear he had never seen it.

1666 Clergy's Apparel.—Examination for the tyme of a certain Declaration, lately put in print in the name of certaine Ministers in London, refusing to weare the apparel prescribed by the lawes and orders of the realme, to which is added the judgment of two notable learned fathers, Doctors Bucer and Martin, some tyme in eyther Universities here of England, the Kynge's Readers and Professors of Divinity, 4to. very neat, scarce, 18*s.* - *R.  This first piece is very rare and interesting; it treats of the divorce of Henry VIII. and Catherine of Arragon, in which the writer is very severe on Henry and his defenders, and has much the best of the argument in the second and fourth chapters, which treat on the king's divorce, and the violent death of Sir Thomas More.

1681 Cochlæi (Joannis) Grammatica, 4to. fine copy, 7*s*. Argent. 1515

1682 Cochran.—Life of Sir Robt. Cochran, Prime Minister of King James II. of Scotland, 8vo. sewed, 3*s*. - 1734

1683 Cockburni (Patricii) Scoti, de vulgari Sacræ Scripturæ phrasi, lib. II. Quorum prior de peccato in Spiritum Sanctum (quod alias ad mortem et irremissibile vocant) tractat: posterior vero difficillimas quosque et obscurissimas utriusque instrumenti locos hactenus à multis male intellectos, et prius adhuc interpretatos summâ cum diligentiâ et fidelitate explicat, cum Appendice novâ et Tabulâ ab ipso authore descripta in gratiam studiosorum, 8vo. very scarce, 1*l*. 11*s*. 6*d*. Parisiis, 1558

 Dedicated to James Stuart, Abbot of St. Andrew's, and son of King James V. Orme says that it is among the scarcest in Scotish literature; and that the only copy which he had seen was in the Advocates' library. The author was much celebrated for his piety as well as learning.

1684 Cockin's (W.) Occasional Attempts in Verse, 8vo. boards, uncut, rare, 10*s*. 6*d*. - - Kendal, 1776

1690 Coinage.—A most valuable and interesting collection of One hundred and fifty Books and Tracts relating to the Coinage, Establishment and Progress of the Bank of England, Finance, Currency, &c. in 6 vols. 4to. and 6 vols. 8vo. in all 12 vols. uniformly bound in calf, very neat, 45*l*. - - 1611-1812

 So extensive a collection as the present, of Tracts (many of which are very rare) on this important subject, has probably never before been offered for sale, and they ought to be deposited in some public library. The foundation of this probably unique collection was made by Rogers Ruding, author of the treatise upon the Coinage of England, to which collection was added an extensive series formed by the Rev. Mr. Baker, of St. John's College, Cambridge, the late Serjeant Heywood, and from various other collections. It must be seen to be duly appreciated. A brief list of the titles of each work may be had for inspection.

 Washington Irving, in his life of Columbus, is very eloquent in praise of the language used in this first document ever printed relative to the discovery of America, and he considers it, on the whole, as far more authentic and valuable than the subsequent works of other authors, who, for the most part, wrote of things they never saw, and who recorded circumstances and deeds as facts, which were entirely fictitious, and existed only in their own imaginations. All other writers, since the discovery of these precious gems, unite in admiration and the warmest eulogiums of their merit and extraordinary rarity, and some state, "Every word of the letter should be incorporated in all future histories of America." Dr. Robertson, notwithstanding his great research, was totally unacquainted with their existence.

1733 Columbus.—Historie del Signor D. Fernando Columbo, nelle quali s'há particolare, et vera Relatione della Vita, e de' fatti dell ammiraglio, D.  The author was born at Cordova in 1487. Accompanied his father in his fourth voyage of discovery in 1502, after whose death he made two voyages to the New World. He was an eye-witness to the facts which he relates in the above volume, particularly the fourth voyage of his father, whose papers and charts he possessed. "His work is an invaluable document, entitled to great faith, and is the corner stone of the History of the American continent."

 The preceding singularly curious and UNIQUE COLLECTION OF SPANISH POEMS, is entirely printed in black letter, but the types nowise uniform, from 1530 to 1535. "They are written in a very old style of the Spanish language, which shows that they must have been composed either in the fourteenth or at the very beginning of the fifteenth century. The compactness of the narrative, the sudden transitions from scene to scene, to follow and carry the subject to an end, in the proposed history to be sung or lamented in the romance, is truly enchanting and admirable; and that artless simplicity in which they are framed, clearly demonstrates that the languages in their infancy were more vigorous, and possessed more power of representing nature than afterwards, when more polished and refined: in their syntax and prosody they have lost in strength that which they have acquired by the refinement of the grammarians, in clearness and harmony.

"I do not find these romances and poems inserted in any of the last selections and collections, published by Dr. Ramon Fernandez, Bohel de Fabor, and D. Augustin Duran, for which reason these copies must be considered very rare and valuable." THEY ARE ALL OF SURPASSING RARITY; FOR EVEN IN SPAIN, EITHER IN PUBLIC OR PRIVATE COLLECTIONS, NOT A SINGLE COPY OF ANY OF THEM IS KNOWN TO EXIST.

Fernandez de Villegas Arcediano de Burgos, y por el comentado allende de los otros glosadores por mandado de la muy excelente señora doña Juana de Aragon duquesa de frias y Condessa de haro fija del muy poderoso Rey don Fernando de Castilla y de Arragon, llamado el catholico, black letter, folio, fine copy, in the original binding, gilt edges, from the Bobadilla collection, EXTREMELY RARE, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* - - - Burgos, 1515

 Only two other copies of the above book are known in this country. The commencement of the volume is as above, printed in the Gothic type, in red letters, then six leaves of summary; the next leaf is occupied by a coat of arms the size of the page; the Proheme, Life and Customs of the Poet, and the Introduction, occupy three leaves and a half, and on the reverse of the last commences the work. The Glosa is very copious, in some places occupying whole pages together without the intervention of any text; it is highly probable that much curious matter relating to Dante, and the times in which he lived, and those also contemporary with the translation, will be found elucidated in it. Another work, written by the translator, was strictly prohibited in Spain, and the author severely condemned; and it is very probable, from its extreme rarity, his Dante shared a similar fate.

1968 Darley's Glory of Chelsea Colledge revived, wherein is declared its original, progress, and design, for preserving and establishing the Church of Christ, with the rare view of Chelsea College, 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* 1662

Paris. ap. Bern. Turrisanum, in Aldinâ Bibliothecâ, 1554

 The works published by Bern. Turrisanus are all neatly printed, and have the titles decorated with the Aldine device, and his office is designated "sub Aldinâ Bibliothecâ," or "sub Officina Aldi." All the volumes published by him are of considerable rarity, and are indispensable in an Aldine series. This estimable work, says Renouard, has obtained for its author the surname of the Venetian Valerius Maximus. It is the first work mentioned by him as issuing from this press.

2348 ELIZABETH.—Historia del glorioso Martirio di sedici Sacerdoti martirizati in Inghilterra per la Confessione et Difesa della Fede Catolica, l'anno 1581, 82, et 1583, 8vo. fine copy, with the six plates, morocco elegant, gilt edges, very rare, 2*l.* 2*s.*
Macerata, 1583

 A short analysis of this volume will convey the best idea of the very interesting contents. It commences with a long preface of 60 pages, in which the innocence of the criminals, or martyrs as they are entitled, is strenuously insisted on, and the malice of their judges and prosecutors warmly asserted. Then ensue the Narrations of the Lives and Deaths of the said Priests, viz. Edmund Campian, R. Sherwin, A. Bryant, Thomas Ford, John Shert, Robert Jonson, W. Filbey, L. Chirbey, Laurence Richards alias Jonson, T. Cottam, John Paine, Everard Haunsey, C. Mayne, T. Sherwood, John Nelson, W. Lacey, R. Churchman, R. Jonson, and W. Hart.

2349 ELIZABETH.—Jani Dousæ Odarum Britannicarum liber, ad D. Elisabetham Britanniarum, Franciæ, Hiberniæque Reginam, item Jani Dousæ Filii Britannicorum Carminum Silva, 4to. presentation copy from the author to Jos. Scaliger, in old stamped binding, edges gilt and tooled, VERY RARE, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*
Lugd. Bat. Plantin. 1586

 A most interesting and exceedingly scarce volume of poems. At the commencement is a long Poem in English, consisting of 90 lines by G. Whitney, in praise of the work. Among other poems in the volume, we may notice those on the Queen's birthday; to Cecil, Lord Burghley; Sir Thomas Heneage; Sir Philip Sydney; Alex. Neville; Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester; with translation in English verse by G. Whitney, &c. &c.

2350 ELIZABETH.—Declaration of the favourable dealing of Her Majesty's Commissioners appointed for the Examination of certaine Traitors, and of Tortures unjustly reported to be done upon them for matters of Religion, black letter, 4to. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, 1*l.* 1*s.* 1583

2351 ELIZABETH.—Copie of the Earle of Leycester's Letter, with Report of certaine Petitions and Declarations made to the Queene's Majestie by the Parliament, and her Majestie's Answers (relating to the Execution of Mary, Queen of Scots, &c.) 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, 1*l.* 1*s.* 1586

2352 ELIZABETH.—Report of the Arraignment, Conviction, and Execution of John Weldon, W. Hartley, and Robert Sutton, who suffered for High Treason in several places about London, the fifth of October, with Speeches, &c. black letter, part of title MS. 4to. 5*s.* 6*d.* - 1588

2353 ELIZABETH.—Declaration of the True Causes of the great Troubles, presupposed to be intended against the Realme of England, wherein the indifferent reader shall manifestly perceave by whom, and by what meanes, the Realme is brought into these pretended perils, 8vo. morocco elegant, gilt edges, 3*l.* 3*s.* - seene and allowed, 1592

 ONE OF THE RAREST AND MOST CURIOUS VOLUMES RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY. It is a review of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and charges her with having, at the instigation of Cecil, subverted the Roman Catholic faith, the religion of her ancestors, in favour of the anti-christian and hitherto unheard-of profession of Protestants. That by sending over 60,000 pounds sterling to the Prince of Orange, which somme was paid by Sir Thomas Gresham at Antwerp, she embroiled the King of Spain in a war with his own subjects; and the money sent by sea from Spain for the payment of his souldiers, about the somme, as some write, of 8,000,000 ducats, was seized on the west coast of England, notwithstanding the Queene had given her passporte for the safe passage thereof, by which means the Low Countries were ruined, and England became the harbour for traitors, the common receptacle of church robbers: yea, the very bells of the steeples of churches were carried into England, and there cast into artillery." Many particulars relating to the voyages of Sir Humfrey Gilbert, Drake, Cavendish, Hawkins, and others.

"Ames says, Mr. Baker remarked to him that this book was a very dangerous libel against the Queen (Elizabeth) and government. It is presumed to have been printed at Cologne, from containing too much treason to be published in England."

Printed by Charles Yetsweirt, Esq. 1594

2355 ELIZABETH.—Letter written out of England to an English gentleman at Padua, containing a true Report of a strange Conspiracie, contrived between Edward Squire, executed for the same treason as actor, and Richard Walpole, a Jesuite, as deviser and suborner against the person of the Queen's Majesty, 4to. sewed, 10*s.* 6*d.* - - 1599

 A scarce historical tract illustrative of the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

Romæ, ex Typographia Vincenti Accolti, 1588

 This is a most curious and interesting tract relating to the Spanish armada. Every argument that could animate or inflame the feelings of the Catholics of all Europe in favour of the armada is adduced. The sufferings of the English Catholics are worse than those endured in the Brazen Bull of Phalaris, &c. and all these emanate from a woman, 'in Christiano olim regno, enutrita,' who now exceeds in tyranny and oppression, Mezentius, Procrustes, Nero, or Tiberius. Much reliance is placed on the influence of Cardinal Allen, and the bravery of the Duke of Parma.

2357 Ellis's (Clem.) Gentile Sinner, or England's brave Gentleman, 12mo. clean copy, in the original binding, 7*s.* 6*d.*

Lipsiæ, 1519

2361 Elohim and Berith; Two Dissertations concerning the Etymology and Scripture Meaning of those Hebrew Words, by Dr. T. Sharp, 1751.—Evidence for Christianity contained in the Hebrew words, Aleim and Berit, stated and defended, against the repeated Rabbinical Attempts to invalidate and destroy it, in Answer to Dr. Sharp, by J. Moody, 1752.—B. Holloway's Remarks on Dr. Sharp's Pieces on the words Elohim and Berith, Oxford, 1751.—Dr. Thomas Sharp's Review and Defence of two Dissertations concerning the Etymology and Scripture-meaning of the Hebrew words Elohim and Berith, 1754, in 1 vol. 8vo. h. b. 7*s.* 6*d.*

2362 Elstob's (Eliz.) Rudiments of Grammar for the English-Saxon Tongue, first given in English: with an Apology for the study of Northern Antiquities, being very useful towards the understanding of our Ancient English Poets, and other writers, LARGE PAPER, 4to. in the original binding, gilt edges, scarce, 12*s.* - - - 1715

Nuremberg, per F. Creusner, MCCCCLXXVI.

 This is a fine specimen of a printer, on whom all bibliographers unite in bestowing their praises. In the Spencer catalogue will be found many warm and just eulogiums on the productions of his press. This book is not contained there, but there are four other works printed by him, which are there described, and only one dated before the above splendid production. Independent of its being desirable as a fine monument of ancient typography, it presents us with one of the earliest Dictionaries adapted to the Latin Bible; the arrangement of it is strictly alphabetical, from A to Z. A copy sold in 1825, for 12*l.* 12*s.*

2364 Elyot's (Sir Tho.) Dictionary, Latin and English, folio, fine copy, russia, gilt edges, 3l. 13s. 6d. - Berthelet, 1538

 First Latin and English Dictionary published in England. It is a work of considerable ability, and deservedly held in high estimation, as one of the earliest and best attempts in the promotion of lexicographical literature.

2365 Emblemes d'Alciat, a series of beautiful wood-cut emblematical Engravings, within curious engraved borders, with descriptions in Latin and French, 8vo. h. b. russia, 6s. 6d. 1549

2366 Emblems.—Cervus, hoc est, quæ per Cervum Significata fuere Sacris Ægyptiorum Literis, a series of Emblematical Engravings, with descriptions in Latin and Dutch verse, 4to. h. b. morocco, 1l. 1s. - - Augsburg, 1602

2379 English History.—Illustria Ecclesiæ Catholicæ Trophœa, ex recentibus Anglicorum Martyrum, Scoticæ proditionis, Gallicorumque furorum rebus gestis graviss. virorum fide notatis, 12mo. morocco, gilt edges, a very scarce and interesting volume, 1*l.* 1*s.* - - Monachii, 1573

2380 English History.—Descriptiones quædam, illius inhumanæ et multiplicis Persecutionis quam in Anglia propter fidem sustinent Catholice Christiani, plates of the cruelties, &c. folio, EXTREMELY RARE, 4*l.* 4*s.*

 "This singularly curious and rare work consists of six leaves; five of them contain plates, occupying nearly the half of each; they are well executed, and judging from their general appearance and the time when the work was published, were most probably engraven by Thomas de Lew."

2381 English History.—De Persecutione Anglicana Libellus, a R. Parsons, 8vo. fine copy, with the six plates of the Executions and other Punishments of various Catholics in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, rare, 2*l.* 2*s.* - Romæ, 1582

2382 English History.—Commentariolus de Persecutione Anglicana a Collegio Romano Anglicano cum Literis Gregorii Papæ XIII. hortatoriis ad subveniendum Anglis, &c. pro fide Catholicâ dispersis, 12mo. fine copy, vellum, 15*s.* Ingolstadii, 1582

 At the end of this rare volume are some Hexameter verses addressed to the following martyrs, Campion, Sherwin, Bryan, Hanse, Nelson, Sherwood, and Cuthbert Mayne; an Epigram of the Author, and a Poem to the English College at Rhemes.

2383 English History.—Epistre de la Persecution en Angleterre contre l'eglise Chrestienne Catholique et Apostolique, et Fideles membres d'icelle, ou sont declarez les tres grandes afflictions, miseres et calamitez, les tourmens tres cruelz et martyres admirables, que tres fideles Chrestiens Anglois souffrent pour leur foy et religion, 8vo. vellum, rare, 1*l.* 1*s.* Paris, 1582

2384 English History.—Historia del Glorioso Martirio di Sedici Sacerdoti Martirizati in Inghilterra per la Confessione et difesa della fede Catolica, l'Anno 1581, 1582, et 1583, 8vo. very scarce, 18*s.* - - Milano, 1584

 The above volume contains a narrative of the Life and Death of Edmund Campian, Ralph Sherwin, Alexander Bryant, Thomas Ford, Robert Johnson, William Filbey, J. Payne, E. Hance, T. Sherwood, J. Nelson, W. Harte, and others.

2385 English History.—Crudelitatis Calvinianæ Exempla duo recentissima ex Anglia, quorum primum continet barbarum ac sævum Calvinianorum edictum recenter editum contra Catholicos: alterum vero exhibet indignissimam mortem illustrissimi viri Henrici Percy Comitis Northumbriæ in Castro Londinensi occisi, 1585.—Martyrium Edmundi Campiani qui cum duobus aliis Presbyteris Radulpho Sherwino et Alexandro Briano in Anglia propter constantem Romanæ et Catholicæ fidei confessionem, mortis supplicio affectus est, per G. Estium, Lovanii, 1582, in 1 vol. 8vo. neat, very rare, 2l. 2s.

 The first is a most interesting historical volume, and highly important, as attempting to prove that Henry Percy, Earl of Northumberland, who had been confined in the Tower, on suspicion of being concerned in Throckmorton's conspiracy, did not shoot himself, as generally accredited, but was murdered by others. That part also which relates to the edict of Q. Elizabeth against the Popish priests, expelling them the kingdom, is very curious and valuable.

At the end is a long letter from England, containing all the news of the day: Particulars of Sir Francis Drake, the 'pirate.' Death of W. Parry, also of Atfield, for distributing Cardinal Allen's book, in answer to the Justitia Britannica. Notices of Walsingham, Cecil and Leicester, ascendancy of the great bear, in allusion to Lord Leicester's armorial bearings, and his influence with the queen, &c. &c.

2386 English History.—Response d'un Gentilhomme François à l'Advertissement des Catholiques Anglois, en laquelle il traite la question, si pour chasser l'heresie il faut tuer les Heretic-ques, et leur faire la guerre, 8vo. vellum, scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* 1587

 Fine copy, very rare, see Maittaire, Panzer, &c.

2424 Epistolæ Magni Turci, a very fine, large, sound, and clean copy, 15*s.* - circa MCCCCLXXIV.

 This edition is without date, place, or the name of the printer, and was probably printed as early as 1474. There are neither signatures, numerals, nor catchwords. These Epistles of the Great Turk (Mahomet II.) to the different potentates of Europe and other places, and their answers, are very curious. The letter and reply between Mahomet and the Pope are perfectly characteristic of the respective writers; the interchange of abuse between them is quite amusing.

2425 Epistola de Miseria Curatorum seu Plebanorum, curious wood-cut, 4to. very scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* - MCCCCLXXXIX.

 "This is a very singular, amusing, and droll piece, describing the nine devils who vex the curate, all at the same time represented in the wood-cut."

2453 Erasmi Concio de Puero Jesu, cum carminibus in fine de eodem, 4to. neat, very scarce, 1*l*. 1*s*. sine ullâ notâ.

 This is probably the FIRST EDITION of this excellent composition of Erasmus, who was a great friend of Dean Colet's, and assisted him much in the establishment of his school. "Among other things he wrote an excellent composition, for the use of the Paul's scholars, which was an oration in praise of the child Jesus (which was spoken publicly in the school by one of the scholars at the solemn time of visiting the school), in an admirable strain of Christian eloquence, recommending the example of Jesus in his childhood, and exhorting the school-fellows to follow his steps in all piety and virtue." At the end of the volume are also the verses, which were set up in the school-room at Dr. Colet's desire.

2483 Essex.—Forty-three most beautiful and elaborate Drawings of Ancient Seals, illustrative of this County, taken from Charters and other early Deeds, relative to St. John's Abbey, Colchester, Hatfield Regis Priory, Lighes Priory, Plecy College, Prittlewell Priory, St. Osith Abbey, Stratford, Langthorne Abbey, Thoby Priory, Tiltey Priory, Tiptree Priory, Walden Abbey, Waltham Abbey, Blackmore Priory, Coggeshall Abbey, St. Botolph Priory, Dunmow Priory, Colne Priory, Berden Priory, Berking Nunnery, Meldon Abbey, Bileigh Abbey, Wykes Nunnery, &c. together with the Seals of the Abbots, Priors, &c. of the same, mounted upon drawing paper, in two vols. 4to. elegantly bound in morocco, gilt edges, richly tooled, 21*l*.

 Nothing can exceed the beauty and veracity displayed by Howlett in the above drawings, which were made with a view to publication, and are truly worthy the object: their value is much enhanced to the historian, county collector, or antiquary, by each drawing containing a description of the nature of the ancient document to which the seal is attached from which they were taken, its date and notice of the archives in which it is to be found, also the date when the religious house to which it relates was founded.

2484 Essex.—Thirteen interesting Tracts and Private Acts illustrative of the County of Essex, from 1642 to 1726, detailing the Proceedings during the Civil Wars, at Colchester, during its Defence by the Loyalists, Sir George Lysle and Sir Charles Lucas, proceedings of the Gentry, Clergy, &c. &c. Private Acts, relative to the Woodford Hall Estate; also the Manors of Walden, empowering the Hon. C. Howard to raise Money for the Payment of the Earl of Suffolk and Bindon; also one for Sir J. Lumley's Estate at Bardfield, &c. &c. in 1 vol. 4to. morocco elegant, 3*l*. 3*s*. 1642-1726

 "The author of this valuable and interesting chronicle is unknown. He speaks of the relics preserved 'in Monasterio Loricensis Ordinis S. Benedicti, quas oculis nostris perspeximus.' The history commences in 1138, and concludes in 1229. It contains many curious anecdotes relative to the state of Europe during that period, the conquests of the two Fredericks Barbarossa in Italy, and their expedition to the Holy Land. The following notice occurs of Richard I.—'Fuit autem Richardus Rex Angliæ Leone ferocissimus, favorabilis, gloria cupidus, pecuniæ liberalis, quocunque ipsum trahebat sequens impetus, et quem ipsi Sarraceni et populus Christianus et alii timuerunt.'"

 "Cette édition exécutée en caractères cursifs, dits de civilité, est peu commune et assez recherchée."—Brunet. This poetical romance contains the well-known trite verse:—

"Incidis in Scyllam, cupiens vitare Charybdim."

Galeottus Martius, who died in 1476, was the first to discover the author of the line in question, see Menagiana, edit. 1729, vol. i. p. 173. Erasmus was ignorant of this author, although we learn from Henricus Gandavensis de Scriptoribus Ecclesiasticis, that the Alexandreis had been read in the schools. Barthius also, in his notes to Claudian, has words to the same effect. Freinsheim, however, in his Comment on Quintus Curtius, confesses that he had never seen the work of Gaultier. Shakspeare, who caught the ray of every gem, has embodied this line in his Merchant of Venice, Act III. Scene 5. See Stevens's Shakspeare, edit. 1793, vol. v. pp. 490-2.  The above volume of Orations, Letters, Poems, &c. Latin and English, is not noticed in the Bibliographer's Manual; it is a curious and very interesting volume, particularly to the Herefordshire collector; the author was head-master of the grammar-school in Hereford. At the end are some English verses upon the church-yard of Easton Neston, in Northamptonshire, being partly turned into a garden by the vicar, Mr. Barradale.

2835 Gardiner's (Dr. Sam.) Dialogue or Conference betweene Irenæus and Antimachus, about the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, 4to. sewed, 5*s.* 6*d.* - 1605

 An Answer to Archbishop Cranmer's Treatise on the Sacrament, which was caused by Bishop Gardiner's Sermon before King Edward VI., touching the Catholic faith of the most precious Sacrament of the Altar. This answer is replete with wily sophistry, and affects to address the Archbishop as the author, merely "because it may be possible that his name is abused, wherewith to set furth the matter, beyng him selfe of such dignitie and auctoritie in the comen welth, as for that respect should be inuiolable."

2842 Gardiner.—Whether Christen Faith may be kepte Secret in the Heart, without confession thereof openly to the Worlde as occasion shall serve; also, what hvrt cometh by them that hath received the Gospell, to be present at Masse, unto the simple and unlearned, 12mo. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, very rare, 2*l.* 2*s.* Roane, by Michael Wood, 1553

2863 Gazæ (Theodori) Introductive Grammatices lib. IV. Ejusd. de Mensibus Opusculum. Apollonii Grammatici de Constructione lib. IV. Herodianus de Numeris, Græce, folio, very fine copy, vellum, 3l. 3s.

Venet. in ædib. Aldi, MCCCCXCV.

 EDITIONES PRINCIPES of all the works in the volume, and a book of the highest estimation and rarity. Theodore Gaza was one of those learned Greeks who fled to Italy on the invasion of his country by the Turks, and contributed in an eminent degree to the revival of letters. His Grammar is highly spoken of by the critics, and Erasmus thought him to be the best Greek grammarian of his time. Its rarity is unquestionable. See Renouard, Brunet, and many other bibliographers. Sold in Sir Mark Sykes's sale for 6*l.* 10*s.*, Dr. Askew's for 5*l.* 10*s.*, and Silvestre's at Paris, in 1808, for 200 francs.

2864 Gazæ Introductivæ Grammatices libri IV. Græcè, 4to. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt leaves, rare, 3l. 3s.

Paris. Gourmont, s. a.

 The four books complete are very rare, from their having been printed separately. This edition is not mentioned by Brunet.

2865 Gazæ Introductivæ Grammatices, lib. IV. Græcè, 4to. remarkably large copy, with rough leaves throughout, morocco elegant, gilt edges, very rare, 2l. 2s. Paris. Gourmont, 1516

 A fine specimen of early Greek typography; the four books are very rarely found complete.

2866 Gazæ Introductivæ Grammatices libri IV. Græcè, 4to. very neat, rare, 18*s.* - Paris. Gourmont, 1518

 This edition has escaped the researches of Brunet and others.

2867 Gazæ Grammaticæ Institutionis libri IV. Gr. et Lat. a Vatello, 4to. neat, rare, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* Paris. 1521

 "Sed ad rem propius studium in hoc nostrum fuit, Aldum ipsum ut possemus imitari, qui latinum in Grammaticam Constantini Lascaris interpretationem edidit."—Jo. Vatellus. It is unknown to Brunet and other bibliographers.

 "PRIMA HÆC EST HEPHÆSTIONIS EDITIO; quam lapsu memoriæ Fabricius in Bibliotheca Gr. Aldo pro Junta attribuit." Sold in Mr. G. Mason's sale for 1*l.* 10*s.*

2869 Gazæ Grammaticæ Introductionis lib. IV. Græce, 12mo. fine copy, vellum, rare, 8*s.* 6*d.* Paris. Gaudoul et Gromors, 1529

 Such is the extreme rarity of the above volume, that notwithstanding the indefatigable researches of the historian of the Parisian press, he seems almost to doubt its existence. It has also escaped the researches of Brunet.

2870 Gazæ Institutionis Grammaticæ lib. IV. Gr. et Lat. 8vo. scarce, 7*s.* 6*d.* - Parisiis, Wechel, 1529

Venet. sumptu Sessæ, per de Sabios fratres, 1545

 This edition is of great rarity, and has escaped the researches of nearly all bibliographers.

2876 Gebelin, Monde Primitif, Analysé et Comparé avec le Monde Moderne, consideré dans son Génie Allégorique et dans les Allégories auxquelles conduisit ce Génie, plates, 9 vols. 4to. REMARKABLY FINE COPY, in rich old French morocco, gilt edges, from the Lamoignon library, 8*l*. 8*s*. Paris, 1778-1782

 This work is of extreme rarity, complete; the ninth volume, containing an etymological dictionary of the Greek language, being almost always wanting.—See Brunet. "The French rank it among those works which have conferred the greatest honour on their nation. D'Alembert said the undertaking was sufficient for forty men; and the authors of the Journal des Savans doubted whether a society of the most learned men of all nations, who understood all languages, and had all the necessary monuments before them, would have undertaken the task." This beautiful copy was purchased at Sotheby's for 14*l*. 14*s*.

2877 Gebhardi (Jani) Crepundiorum seu Juvenilium Curarum lib. III. in quibus infinitis locis præcipue Cicero, Ovidius, Quintilianus, Ruffinus aliique scriptores e MSS. Bibl. Palat. emendantur et illustrantur, 4to. vellum, 4*s*. 6*d*. Hanoviæ, 1615

2896 Gent.—A curious and interesting Collection of Papers, Printed and Manuscript, principally relating to the City of York, in 1 vol. folio, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.* - York, 1657, &c.

 This singularly curious collection consists of ballads, poems, play-bills, some printed by Gent, the celebrated author, antiquarian, and printer. A very curious and interesting article, particularly to the Yorkshire collector. Formerly in the Towneley Collection, where it was purchased for 6*l.* 6*s.*

2897 Gent's History of the famous and Magnificent Great Eastern Window in St. Peter's Cathedral, numerous cuts, York, 1762. —Contingencies, Vicissitudes, or Changes of this transitory life, set forth in a Prologue at the deep Tragedy of Jane Shore, by Thomas Gent, Master Printer, being uttered and performed at his benefit, and now published by the desire of some friends, who then heard him, York, 1761.—Judas Iscariot, York, 1772, in 1 vol. 8vo. neat, 1*l.* 1*s.*

 To any collector of Gent's pieces, the above volume will be particularly interesting, as besides the above rare pieces, there is also at the end a prospectus, also printed by Gent, of a Poetical History of the Ancient Militia in Yorkshire, written under cruel disappointment and waiting for paper. Also another prospectus of a History of St. Peter's Cathedral, York, diligently compiled by Thomas Gent, printer; belonging to Mr. Allen's Hospit. Ætat. 74, adorned with a profusion of wood-cuts.

2899 Gent's Life, PRINTED ON WRITING PAPER, on which only a very limited number were taken off, with proof impression of the portrait on India paper, 8vo. cloth bds. extra, 1*l.* 1*s.* 1832

 The author of this curious and hitherto unpublished piece of Autobiography is well known by the several works of which he was the author as well as printer. The narrative is full, written in an easy and unaffected style, interspersed with several pieces of poetry, and from the number of adventures he went through in early life, and the characters and stories incidentally introduced, is extremely amusing. His occupation as a printer necessarily introduced him to the acquaintance of many literary men, and his book abounds with notices of authors, printers, &c. of the times in which he lived; among others occur the names of Bishop Atterbury, with whom he relates a curious interview, Browne Willis, and Dr. Drake, the historian of York.

2900 Gentleman Harry.—Hanging no Dishonour, being a modest attempt to prove that such persons as have the honour to make their exit at the triple tree are not always the greatest villains in the nation, in a Letter from Gentleman Harry,

 Barbier, who derives his description of this volume, which is of the greatest rarity, from Antonio, is not correct in his detail; among other errors, he says it is dedicated to Elizabeth de Villena, whereas it is Isabel. "La langue Valencienne, dont s'est servi Michel Perez, est l'ancienne langue de oc (du Languedoc et de la Provence), que les Français portèrent en Catalogne, lors qu'ils conquirent cette province. Comme cette langue approche beaucoup du Limousin, et ne s'en éloigne que dans ses dialectes, on l'appelle aussi langue Limousine."—Barbier, sur les Trad. de Tho. a Kempis, pp. 98, 99.

2931 Gersoni Tractatus de Simonia, folio, fine copy, scarce, 7*s.* 6*d.* sine ullâ notâ, sed Norimb. Creusstner, circa MCCCLXXX.

 Clement, in his Bibl. Curieuse, has given a long, spirited, and most interesting account of Damian da Goes, who was one of the greatest geniuses that Portugal ever produced. He has cited an edition of the above works relating to the East of 1611, and entitles it "Rarissima," but has not noticed the above. The description of the siege of Lovaine in the volume is interesting, as the author was an eye-witness of it, and it relates some personal history that is curious.

2995 Goes.—Legatio Magni Imp. Indorum Presbyterii Joannis, interp. 3016 Gosson's (Stephen) Trumpet of Warre, a Sermon preached at Paule's Crosse, 12mo. very neat, 1*l*. 5*s*. - 1598

 The Trumpet of Warre, like most of this author's pieces, is of very rare occurrence. It is replete with curious allusions, and ludicrous imagery. In reference to his employment in the ministry, Gosson, in the dedication to Richard Bancroft, Bp. of London, states, that he had brought in those labours to the church, fitted to the times, and that honourable assembly to which he spoke, seeing that God in his goodnesse had made him a little naile in his temple, to hang some part of his service upon.

 "Edition très rare, et rendue célèbre dans la Republique des Lettres par la quantité de Dissertations qu'elle a occasionnées, et qui ont été faites par différens Bibliographes. La rareté de ce Livre engagea même M. DE LA MONNOYE à en publier une Dissertation particuliere; dans laquelle, non content de faire l'apologie de cette prétieuse édition, il prétend encore qu'on doit regarder comme unique dans Paris, l'exemplaire qui en existe à la Bibliotheque Mazarine. Plusieurs Bibliographes étrangers, qui ont écrit après lui, semblent confirmer son sentiment, et regardent comme un Livre des plus rares cette édition de la Grammaire de Chrysoloras."—See DE BURE, who could refer to only one other copy, which was in the Gaignat collection, and produced 129 francs; Brunet also is very minute in his description of it.

3202 Harvey's (Rich.) Astrological Discourse upon the great and noble Conjunction of the two superior planets, Saturne and Jupiter, 8vo. neat, VERY RARE, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* - 1583

 Addressed to the author's brother, Gabriel Harvey. This astrological discourse supplied the germ of that bitter pen conflict between Gabriel Harvey, the author's brother, and Tom Nash, the lampooner. It had the effect of throwing the whole kingdom into the most violent consternation.

" It appears to have subjected the writer to a censure from the Privy Council, in consequence of some political predictions, and the prognosticated death of some mighty and renowned magistrate, which was supposed to designate Queen Elizabeth.

" The Earl of Northumberland's Defensative against the poison of supposed Prophecies, published in 1583, has an evident glance at this tract in the title-page, when his lordship speaks of ' the late offence, which grew by most palpable and gross errors in Astrologie.' "

3203 Harvey (Gideon), Case of a Nobleman Deceased, with the Art of Curing the most dangerous of Wounds, by the first intention, with the Description of the Remedies, 12mo. fine clean copy, in the original binding, 7*s.* 6*d.* - 1678

 A most extraordinary narrative; the nobleman was wounded in a duel by a sword, and the case written by the king's command.

3204 Harward's Discourse of the several Kinds and Causes of Lightning, written by occasion of a fearful lightning, which, on the 17th of November last, burned the spire steeple of Blechingley, in Surrey, and melted the bells in the steeple, 4to. h. b. russia, scarce and curious, 10*s.* 6*d.* - 1607

3216 HAWKING, HUNTING, FISHING, &c.—Juliana Berners's Book of St. Albans, containing the Treatises of these sports and Coat Armour, Blasing of Arms, &c. with Biographical Prolegomena, Index, &c. by Joseph Haslewood, interleaved, and illustrated with much additional matter, engraved, printed, and manuscript, by the editor, in 2 vols. folio, morocco elegant, gilt edges, UNIQUE, 18*l*. 18*s*.
Westminster, by Wynkyn de Worde, 1496, Reprinted 1811

 This copy is rendered completely unique by the editor, who has illustrated it with the engravings in many states, tracings from various early editions, the autograph correspondence of various antiquarians and other collectors during its progress through the press, also some hundred engravings which can in any way elucidate its pages, or add splendour in effect, regardless of expence, from many costly works. No cost or outlay could form another similar copy, from the advantages the editor possessed during its progress of obtaining proofs, &c. which could not now be obtained. To any ardent lover of field sports, or collector of books upon these subjects, it cannot fail of proving the highest gratification. Since the editor's death, two interesting long letters to the Lord Deputy Lieutenant of Ireland, with autographs of King Charles I. directing some hawks to be taken in that kingdom, and forwarded for his Majesty's sport, have been inserted.

 EDITIO PRINCEPS: particularly noticed as being amongst the most rare of the volumes in the Bodleian and Spencer libraries. Sold in the Mac Carthy sale for 80 francs, and in the Duke of Grafton's for 9*l*.

3360 Hieron's (Sam.) Answere to a Popish Ryme, lately scattered abroad in the West parts, and much relyed upon by some simply seduced, a poem, with notes, black letter, 4to. stained, 10*s*. 6*d*. - - - - 1608

3361 Hieronymus.—Aureola ex Suavissimis Salutiferisque Floribus gloriosi confessoris atque Doctoris Ecclesie beati Jeronymi ad fabre contexta.—Jo. de Turrecremata Contemplaciones devotissimæ in parietibus circuitus Marie Minerve ne dum litterarum caracteribus verum eciam ymaginum figuris ornatissime descripte atque depicte.—Exposicio Ven. Magistri Heinrici de Hassia super Dominicam orationem, in 1 vol. folio, fine copies, 1*l*. 11*s*. 6*d*. - MCCCCLXXII.

 There can be little question that these three early specimens of typography were printed with the same letter, and have issued from the same press. Panzer ascribes them to some unknown printer at Spires. The second book in the volume (Contemplaciones, &c.) is very rare, and remarkable for being the first book, in all probability, in which typographical signatures were used; at all events, if not the first, the second.—See long Note.

3362 Hieronymi Epistolæ et Libri contra Hæreticos, ex antiquissimis exemplaribus, nunc primum opera ac studio Mariani Victorii Reatini emendati, ejusdemque argumentis, et scholiis illustrati, 4 vols. 8vo. very fine large copy, with rough edges, RARE, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*. Romæ, P. Manutius, 1566

3620 Invasion.—Rhapsody on the present System of French Politics; or the projected Invasion, and the Means to Defeat it, 1779.—J. Glennie's Short Essay on the Modes of Defence best adapted to the Situation and Circumstances of this Island, Examination of the Schemes formed, and very extensive Plans, which are ready to be carried into Execution by the Duke of Richmond, 1785.—Answer to Ditto, by the Duke of Richmond, 1785.—Glennie's Reply to Ditto, 1785. —Strictures on the Duke of Richmond's Fortification System, by J. Glennie, 1785, in 1 vol. 8vo. very neat, 7*s.* 6*d.*

3621 Invasion.—Account of the threatened Invasion of England, in the 10th year of King Richard II.'s Reign, compared with that of 1798, 8vo. sewed, 3*s.* - 1798

3622 Invasion.—The Country in Arms; or No Danger from Invasion, by an Old Soldier, 8vo. sewed, 2*s.* - 1803

3624 IRELAND.—Nine most beautiful DRAWINGS OF ANCIENT SEALS, relative to the See of Armagh, Monastery of St. Edmund of Athissel, in the Diocese of Cassel, Priory of Conall, the See of Derry, See of Down and Connor, Abbey of Jugo Dei, St. Patrick of Sabells, See of Waterford and the Abbey of St. Mary of Yues, very neatly mounted on drawing paper, in one vol. 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, richly tooled, 4*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*

 Nothing can exceed the beauty and veracity displayed by Howlett, in his delineation of the above drawings, which were made with a view to publication, and are truly worthy that object. Their value is equal to medals, fixing disputed dates, and which is much enhanced to the historian, county collector, or antiquary, by each drawing having underneath a description of the nature of the ancient document to which the seal is attached, and from which the drawing was taken: also the date and notice of the archives in which it is to be found, and the date when the religious house to which it relates was founded.

3625 IRELAND.—Vita S. Marini Hiberniæ Episcopi et Martyris, atque Aviani Archidiaconi Confessoris, a Joan. a Via, Germanicè, engraved title, 4to. fine copy, VERY RARE, 2l. 2s. Monachii, 1572

3628 IRELAND.—The Historie of Ireland, collected by three learned Authors, Hanmer, Campion, and Spencer, folio, neat, in the original binding, 2l. 2s. - - 1633

3629 IRELAND.—Bouillon (F.) Histoire de la Vie et du Purgatoire de S. Patrice Archevesque et Primat d'Hybernie, 12mo. neat, rare, 1*l.* 1*s.* - Avignon, sans date.

 This is a very curious volume, and contains the marrow of what most writers have written on the subject. The author informs us that his original intention was to publish a mere version of the life of St. Patrick, but, says he, "comme j'ay rencontré quantité de choses excellentes qui faisoient à mon sujet dans les autheurs digne de creance qui traittent de cette même matière; j'ay esté bien aise de t'en faire part." He however adds, that at times he was under the necessity "de retrancher par discretion, ce qui sembloit choquer la verité de l'histoire."

3630 Ireland.—Relation of the Beginning and Continuation of the Irish Rebellion, with the Place where, and Persons who did Plot, Contrive and put in Execution, that Romish damnable Designe, as also the Inhuman Cruelties which they have Executed upon the Protestants, with Account of the Battle of Swords near Dublin, by P. G., 4to. h. b. neat, scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* - - 1641

3631 Ireland.—Declaration concerning the Rise and Progresse of the Grand Rebellion in Ireland, together with the examinations of various Persons of Quality, thereby showing who were the Promoters of that Rebellion, with some Letters and Papers of great consequence, of the Earl of Antrim's, which were intercepted; also some Letters of Marque, which were granted by the Lord Mohun, Sir Ralph Hopton, &c. 4to. neat, a very scarce and interesting volume, 12*s.* 1643

3632 Ireland.—Howell's Mercurius Hibernicus; or a Discourse of the insurrection in Ireland, displaying the true causes of, the course taken to suppresse it, the reasons that drew on a cessation of Armes, &c. 4to. h. b. morocco, very rare, 15*s.* Bristol, 1644

 A curious historical tract. It is one of the earliest specimens of printing at Bristol. Dr. Cotton notices one sermon printed the year before.

3633 Ireland.—Vindiciarum Catholicorum Hiberniæ, authore Philopatro Irenæo ad Alitophilum Libri duo, quorum Primus Rerum in Hiberniâ gestarum ab anno 1641, ad annum 1649, Synopsim; Secundus Libelli famosi in Catholicos Hiberniæ Proceres, qui honestissimam cum Regiarum Partium Hominibus Pacem inierunt, accuratam Confutationem continet, 12mo. neat, extremely rare, 2l. 2s. Paris. 1650

 This scarce and valuable book has been erroneously attributed to Sir R. Belling by Harris and others; but P. Walsh, in p. 47 of the Preface to his History of Remonstrance of 1661, expressly calls it the work of Dr. Callaghan. This Dr. Callaghan was presented by the Supreme Council of Kilkenny, on behalf of the Crown, to be appointed Bishop of Cork, but being of the Ormond or Loyalist party, he was rejected by the Pope as a favourer of heresy. Poncius, Massaria, and the Rimiccini party, attacked Callaghan for his hostility to the Papal Court and the Jesuits. It was unknown to Nicolson and many other writers, and the sale of only one other copy can be traced, which was in the Gordonstoun collection, and produced 5l.

3634 Ireland.—Decree of the University of Paris, relative to certain Irish Students about to be admitted into that Society, to be inducted by Nicholas Power, in Latin, two leaves, 4to. very rare, 10*s.* 6*d.* - - Paris, 1651

3635 Ireland.—Metra Miscellanea Epigrammatum libri III.; Sylvarum totidem accesserunt Eulogia aliquot illustrium Heroum, authore Bonaventura Baronio Hyberno, 12mo. some leaves wormed, EXTREMELY RARE, 1*l.* 1*s.* Col. Agrip. 1657

 Among the Poems in this extremely rare volume, are some addressed to Dermot Molrone, St. Bridget, St. Patrick, Mary Wadding and others. It contains also a Poem consisting of two hundred and four lines by Luke Wadding of Waterford, and a description of Clonmel in verse.

3636 Ireland.—Threni Hybernici; or, Ireland Sympathizing with England and Scotland for Loss of their Josiah, by Dr. Harrison, on the Death of Cromwell, 1659.—Remarks on the Affairs and Trade of England and Ireland, by Walter Harris, 1691.—Case of the Irish Protestants, in Relation to Recognizing King William and Queen Mary, Stated and Resolved, 1691.—The Pretences of the French Invasion Examined, for the Information of Great Britain and Ireland, 1692.—Answer to the late King's Declaration, 1693.—Letter to a Member of Parliament, giving an Account of the Tackers, 1693.—Proposals for Raising a Million of Money out of the Forfeited Estates in Ireland, with Answer of the Irish to the same and Reply, 1694.—Picture of a Modern Whig, 1701.—Reflections on Defoe's Shortest Way with the Dissenters, Character of a Low Churchman, &c. 1703.—Forma Precum, 1704.—Articles of the Treaty of Union, 1706, in one vol. 4to. half bound, scarce, 18*s.*

3637 Ireland.—Petty's Observations upon the Trade of Irish Cattle, single leaf, folio, 3s.

3638 Ireland.—Present State of Ireland, with Remarques upon the ancient state thereof, likewise a Description of the chief Towns, with map, 12mo. 5s. - 1673

3639 Ireland.—Het wonderlyck Leven van den grooten H. Patricius, Patriarch van Irlandt, 12mo. rare, 7*s*. 6*d*. Antv. 1668

3640 Ireland.—Letter from a Gentleman in Ireland, relating to the concerns of Ireland in matters of Trade, 4to. h. b. neat, scarce, 10*s*. 6*d*. - - 1677

 This letter contains some excellent remarks on the prohibition of the import of Irish cattle and wool into England, &c. showing the impolicy and evil consequences of attempts to restrain the industry and trade of Ireland.

3641 Ireland.—Collection of all the Statutes now in use in the Kingdom of Ireland, with Notes in the Margin, and continuation of those of King Charles I.; likewise the Acts of Settlement, folio, fine copy, marbled leaves, 1*l*. 1*s*. Dublin, 1678

3642 Ireland.—A most curious collection of Newspapers, addressed to and preserved by Richard Connell, esq., Alderman of Kilkenny, from 1685 to 1710, including a series of the London Gazette, Dublin Gazette, Dublin Intelligence, News Letters, Post Bag, Post Man, Protestant Mercury, Flying Post, &c. also some Autograph Letters to him of Additional Intelligence, in one thick vol. folio, 5*l*. 5*s*. 1685-1710

 This most curious volume contains much interesting official historical matter relative to the Battle of the Boyne, Siege of Londonderry, and other defeats of the rebels in Ireland, by King William III. Also various proclamations by King James and William III. Queen Anne, and also by various Lord Lieutenants of Ireland, and much other matters of important Irish history. Also the Campaigns of the armies under King William, the Duke of Marlborough, &c. abroad, particulars also of the feats, proceedings of Judge Jeffries against the rebels in the West of England, proclamations and other papers against the Pretender, papers relating to the persecution of the protestants, papers relating to London, notices of births, marriages, and deaths of the nobility, &c. Accounts of various impeachments, trials, duels, and much other very curious historical and biographical matter, &c. &c.

3643 Ireland.—State of Ireland, with a Vindication of the Act of Settlement, and Commissioners' Proceedings, &c. also Reflections on the late Coventry Letter, and a Pamphlet called a Narrative of the Sale and Settlement of Ireland, by a Person of Honour, 4to. fine copy, neat, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*. 1688

 A very rare and interesting volume. For the Narrative of the Sale and Settlement of Ireland, see under French.

3644 Ireland.—King (Dr. W.) State of the Protestants of Ireland under King James's Government, 4to. h. b. neat, 7*s*. 6*d*. 1691

3645 Ireland.—Collection of Tracts formed by Viscount Townshend, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, &c. in 45 vols. 8vo. neat, 5*l*. 15*s*. 6*d*. - - - 1695-1764

 This interesting collection relates to Ireland, absentees of ditto, the trade and Navigation of Great Britain, both at home and abroad: the East and West Indies, America, and the British Colonies; fisheries, revenue, national debt, customs, bank, mint, coins, and coinage; public funds, credit, South-Sea Company, excise, duties on sugar, salt, wine, tobacco, wool, land-tax, &c.; corn trade, French colonies, Dunkirk, Gibraltar, Turkey, war in Flanders, parliament, politics, peerage, star-chamber cases, libels, army and navy, treaties with foreign nations, rebellion, pretender, Quakers, &c. by the most influential writers of his lordship's day, who married, first, the daughter of Thomas Lord Pelham, and sister to Thomas Pelham Hollis, Duke of Newcastle; and, secondly, the sister to Robert Walpole, first Earl of Orford.

3646 Ireland.—Essay on the Conversion of the Irish; showing that 'tis their Duty and Interest to become Protestants, in a Letter to themselves, 8vo. fine copy, in the original binding, gilt edges, 15*s*. - - - 1698

3647 Ireland.—Vindication of the Parliament of England in Answer to Molyneux's Case of Ireland, &c., by John Cary, Merchant in Bristol, 1698.—An Answer to Mr. Molyneux's Case of Ireland, &c., and his dangerous Notion of Ireland's being under no Subordination to the Parliamentary Authority of England Refuted, 1698, in one vol. 12mo. fine copies, very neat, scarce, 10*s*. 6*d*. - - 1698

3648 Ireland.—Answer to Mr. Molyneux's Case of Ireland, &c. and his dangerous notion of Ireland's being under no Subordination to England Refuted, 12mo. 4*s*. 6*d*. - 1698

3649 Ireland.—Cary's Considerations relating to the carrying on the Linen Manufacture in the Kingdom of Ireland, by a Joint-Stock, 8vo. sewed, 3*s*. - - 1704

 An interesting tract, relating to the Irish Linen Manufacture, the employment of the poor in that kingdom, and other interesting matters.

3650 Ireland.—Acts and Statutes made at Dublin, before the Duke of Ormonde, and others, from 1703 to 1711, folio, neat, scarce, 5*s*. - - - Dublin, 1711

3651 Ireland.—Her Majesty's Prerogative in Ireland; the Authority of the Government and Privy Council there, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of the City of Dublin asserted and maintained, in Answer to the Case of the City of Dublin, in relation to the Election of a Lord Mayor, 1712.—Letter to a Member of Parliament, concerning the Naval Store Bill, with Observations on the Plantation Trade, 1721.—Report from the Committee appointed to Inquire into the State of the Gaols of England, relating to the Fleet Prison, with Resolutions and Orders of the House of Commons thereupon, Dublin, 1729.—Craftsman Extraordinary, in a Letter of Advice with respect to some French Officers arrived to raise Recruits, 1730.—State of the Case of Loughneagh and the Bann, by Francis, Lord Bishop of Down and Connor, Dublin, 1738.—T.  The advertisement prefixed to the book states it to be much more correct than the London edition, having been compared with two manuscripts in the Archbishop's library. Great doubts exist of Clarendon's being the author; it was written no doubt in reply to Nicholas French's Bleeding Iphigenia, in defence of the Marquis of Ormond, by himself or some friend in 1674, and many copies circulated in manuscript.

3653 Ireland.—Representation to the King's Majesty, by the Lords of the Irish Parliament, with the Report of the Committees for Courts of Justice, &c. 1720.—Letter from a Member of the Irish House of Commons to a Gent. of the long robe, in Answer to some Objections made against the Judicatory Power of the Irish Parliament, 1720.—Second Letter to Ditto, setting forth the illegal Proceedings of the Barons of the Exchequer, Dublin, 1720. — H.  The present volume, consisting of two parts, was evidently printed at Calcutta in Bengal, where the poems appear to have been chiefly written. In the first part are the prologue and epilogue on the opening the new theatre at Calcutta. The writer has addressed some highly encomiastic verses to Mrs. Jordan, the celebrated actress.

In the second part is a Latin epitaph on the author's mother, "added to that on the tablet of my father, upon the east wall of the church of S. Edmund the King, in Lombard Street, London, 1790." Verses to John Philip Kemble, with Bodoni's edition of Anacreon, 1798. "To Dr. Drury, with a fine edition of the Greek poets, 1801." Translation of verses, by Dr. Parr, on Bellendenus. Parody on Sir William Jones's hymn to Camdeo; epigram on Mr. Shore's (afterwards Lord Teignmouth) assumption of the government of Bengal, &c.

"Cette fameuse société, qui a fait tant de bien aux sciences et aux lettres, et tant de mal en politique, ne perdoit jamais de vue qu'elle étoit une puissance sur la terre; aussi mettoit elle beaucoup d'importance à ses loix et règlements, bien différente en cela des autres ordres religieux, pour la plupart desquels leurs status n'étoient qu'un lien, une gêne plus ou moins désagréable aux individus, selon le degré de leur piété ou de leur relâchement. Pour les Jésuites, au contraire, ces règlements étoient un corps d'instruction qui leur étoit cher, et dont l'observance assuroit peut-être encore plus leurs succés dans le monde, que leur avancement dans la perfection chrétienne. Ces écrites, qui sont assez nombreux, étoient recherchés avec avidité par les curieux, auxquels ils étoient le plus souvent soustraits par les Jésuites, qui n'aimoient pas à les voir dans les mains des profanes. La collection est celle que possédoit le fameux Cardinal de Brienne, de qui je l'ai acquise avant sa mort. Je l'ai depuis augmentée de plusieurs des plus rares volumes. Les volumes en sont tous dans le meilleur état de conservation."—RENOUARD.

 An attack upon the alterations then proceeding at the Castle. On the title are the following lines:—

"At Windsor Castle let us pass a day,
Where all cry out 'What sums are thrown away!'
So proud, so grand; of that stupendous air,
Soft and agreeable came never there.
Greatness with Wyatt dwells in such a draught,
As brings all Brobdignag before your thought.
To compass this his building is a town;
The Windsor towers eye not with a frown,
Grandeur like his demands a mural crown."

 "Mr. Lesley is unhappily misled in his politicks; but he has given the world such a proof of his soundness in religion, as many a Bishop ought to be proud of. I never saw the gentleman in my life: I know him to be the son of a great and excellent prelate, who on several accounts, was one of the most extraordinary men of his age. I verily believe, that he acted from a mistaken conscience, in refusing to swear allegiance to King William, and therefore I distinguish between the principles and the person. However, it is some mortification to me, when I see an avowed non-juror contribute more to the confounding of Popery, than could ever be done by a hundred thousand such introductions."—See Bishop Burnet's Introduction to the History of the Reformation.

 This volume was compiled in England, to substantiate some proofs which were necessary to the validity of a marriage between one of the heiresses of this renowned Portuguese family and the Marquis of Maucareguas. It was not printed for sale, and contains much highly interesting historical matter. The family is one of the oldest in Portugal, and enrolls among its members the celebrated poet Saa de Miranda, whose works are deservedly held in the highest estimation, and of whom here are full particulars, as also of the unfortunate Garcia de Saa, whose unhappy fate has been so pathetically deplored by Camoens.

In the volume are some interesting letters of John IV. Duke of Braganza and King of Portugal, and twenty engraved plates of the pedigree of the family. The author, Francis à Macedo, was one of the warmest supporters of the Duke of Braganza, when he ascended the throne of Portugal, and was much esteemed for his great and various learning.

 'A valuable edition, with excellent notes.'

4408 Manilii Astronomicon, FIRST EDITION, 4to. fine large copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, OF THE UTMOST RARITY, 8*l.* 8*s.* Nuremb. Jo. de Regiomonte (MCCCCLXXII.)

 "An exceedingly rare and valuable impression. Stoeber in the preface to his excellent edition of this author, is quite positive respecting the chronological priority of this impression, which he calls Liber Aureus. He even criticises Fabricius for assigning it to the date of 1473; one year later than the period in which he himself conceives it to have been printed. Of its great intrinsic value he is strong in his recommendation."—Dibdin. Santander calls it "Edition originale, infiniment rare, et très recherchée des curieux." Sold in the Lucca sale for 20*l.* 10*s.*, and in Mr. Heber's for 17*l.* 17*s.*

4409 Manilii Astronomicon, FIRST EDITION WITH A DATE, folio, remarkably fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, 7*l.* 7*s.* Bononiæ, MCCCCLXXIV.

 "This book is so scarce, that many have denied its existence." See Bibliotheca Parisiana, where a copy was purchased for 30*l.* 9*s.*, by Mr. Cracherode, which is now in the British Museum.

4410 Manilii Astronomicon, P. Stephanus Dulcinius emendavit, folio, fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, EXTREMELY RARE, 4*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* Mediolani, per Ant. Zarotum, MCCCCLXXXIX.

 "Edition encore rare et recherchée."—Brunet. It is a fine specimen of printing, and the present copy for amplitude of margin can hardly be surpassed.

 Reprinted from the first Aldine edition: printed the same year. It is scarce, and was not known to Renouard when he published the first edition of his Annales des Alde.

4438 Manutii (P.) Epistolæ et Præfationes, 8vo. large copy, 12*s.* In Acad. Venetâ, 1558

 FIRST EDITION of these elegant letters and prefaces, which is highly desirable, from the names to which they are addressed being suppressed in the subsequent editions, which Renouard supposes to have arisen from coolness of friendship, or the brouilleries which arose between those persons and Paul Manutius. Renouard is unusually copious on this rare little volume.—See Annales des Alde, vol. ii. pp. 223, 224. Sold in Sykes's sale for 1*l.* 15*s.*

4439 Manutio (Aldo) Eleganze insieme con la Copia, della Lingua Toscana e Latina, 8vo. h. b. neat, 15*s.* Venetia, Aldo, 1558

4443 Manutius.—Diploma Maximiliani II. Paulo Manutio concessa die XXVIII. Apr. 1571, PRINTED UPON VELLUM, in a case, 2*l.* 2*s.* - - - - 1571

 The above interesting document has been stated to be a counterfeit of the original, printed under the direction of M. Tosi, of Milan, who sold it as genuine in Paris. If this is the case, it is certainly a most wonderful deception, so much so that the late Bishop of Lichfield doubted the statement, and purchased it for 5*l.* 5*s.*

4590 Matrimony Analysed, or Inquiry into the Objections against the Act for the Prevention of Clandestine Marriages, by Sir Tanfield Leman, 1755.—Preface to a New Translation of Ariosto, by John Hoole, n. d.—Grey's Apology for the Servants, 1760.—Sheridan's Discourse introductory to his Lectures on Elocution, and the English Language, 1759.—The Œconomy of Love, a Poetical Essay, 1736.—Letter from Foote to the Author of the Remarks on the Minor, 1760.—City Latin, or Remarks on the Latin Inscription on laying the First Stone of Black Fryars Bridge, 1760.—Essay on Collateral Consanguinity, 1750.—Deed of Trust, and Will of Richard Rawlinson, 1755.—Memoirs of the Life of Mandrin, Captain-General of the French Smugglers, 1755, in 1 vol. 8vo. neat, 8*s.* 6*d.*

4591 Matrimony made Easy; or, a New Form of Marriage, with Petition, &c. for Tolerating the same, and putting it upon an equal footing with the Marriages of the Quakers and Jews, &c. 8vo. sewed, 3*s.* - - - 1764

4592 Mathew's (Will.) Observations upon a Pamphlet, entituled the Letter which Pope Gregory XV. wrote to King Charles I. of England, concerning his Marriage to the Infanta of Spain, and that Prince's Answer, 4to. fine copy of a scarce and curious tract, 7*s*. 6*d*. - Ipswich, 1729

4593 Maupas (Ch.) French Grammar and Syntaxe, translated by W. Aufeild, frontispiece, containing portraits, by G. Glover, 12mo. original binding, 10*s*. 6*d*. - 1634

 From Aufeild's dedication to the son of the famous George Villiers, Duke of Buckingham, after his assassination by Felton, it appears that Maupas, the author of this book, was the preceptor in French to the Duke, and in the original dedicated it to him. The present volume is extremely scarce. The frontispiece contains portraits of Charles I., Villiers Duke of Buckingham, Louis the Thirteenth, and Cardinal Richelieu.

4594 Mauri (Hartmanni) Coronatio invictissimi Caroli V. Hispaniarum Regis Catholici, curious wood-cut title, 4to. fine copy, scarce, 7*s*. 6*d*. - - Nurembergæ, 1523

4599 Maxwell's (James) Monvment of Remembrance erected in Albion, in honor of the magnificent Departvre from Britannie and honorable receiuing in Germany, namely, at Heidelberge, of the two most noble Princes Frederick and Elizabeth, the onely daughter of our most gratious and soueraigne Lord, 4to. fine copy, A VERY RARE POEM, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*. 1613

 This volume is dedicated to the illustrious house of Howard; and in the author's address to the reader, giving the reasons of such dedication, there is an account of that great family: the poetry is occasionally interspersed with prose, in which is contained a great deal of curious historical and other matter.

4600 MAXIMILIANI TRANSYLVANI EPISTOLA de Moluccis Insulis itemque aliis pluribus mirandis nuper inventis, 8vo. fine copy, EXTREMELY RARE, 6*l*. 6*s*. Colon. Mense Januar. 1523

 This very curious and excessively rare little volume is the original edition of the celebrated Voyage of Magellan, from whom the straits so called derived their name. The author of this epistle was a relation of Christopher Haro, the friend and companion of Magellan, in this voyage "Frater mei Soceri." The voyage (in which these straits were first discovered) commenced in August, 1519, and ended September 6, 1522. The letter was written October 24, and printed in January, 1523. This original edition is so extremely rare, that it is believed to have escaped the researches of all bibliographers. A copy sold at Mr. Evans's for 11*l*. 11*s*.

4601 Maximiliani Transylvani Cæsaris a Secretis Epistola, de admirabili et novissima Hispanorum in Orientem Navigatione, qua variæ et nulli prius accessæ Regiones inventæ sunt, cum ipsis etiam Moluccis Insulis beatissimis, optimo Aromatum genere refertis. Inauditi quoque incolarum mores exponuntur, ac multa quæ Herodotus, Plinius, Solinus, atque alii tradiderunt, fabulosa esse arguuntur. Contra nonnulla ibidem vera, vix tamen credibilia explicantur, quibuscum Historiis Insularibus ambitus describitur alterius Hemisphærii, unde ad nos tandem Hispani redierunt incolumes, 4to. remarkably fine large copy of this EXTREMELY RARE and interesting volume, morocco elegant, gilt edges, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* - Romæ, Mense Novemb. 1523

4602 Maximus Tyrius, translated from the Greek, with Notes by Thomas Taylor, 2 vols. 8vo. bds. scarce, 7*s.* 6*d.* 1804

 "These dissertations are on very important moral and theological subjects, and are highly worthy the attention of the liberal reader, and are calculated to be largely beneficial, notwithstanding their inaccuracy in certain parts which pertain to the sublimities of the Platonic philosophy. These inaccuracies, wherever they occur, the translator has endeavoured to correct in the notes which accompany this translation; the arrangement of the dissertations is in the order of the manuscripts which existed in the time of the Empress Eudocia, who lived upwards of eight hundred years ago. As a partial remedy to the mighty evil of indifference in, or total neglect of, the duties of religion, and atheistical conceptions of divinity, these dissertations are recommended to the earnest attention of the English reader."

4603 Mayer (Wolfangi) Abbatis Alderspacen. Christi fasciculus florido Heroici Poematis Caractere digestus, 4to. a very scarce poetical tract, 7*s.* 6*d.* - Landshut, 1505

 This is probably one of the earliest specimens of printing at Landshut, a strong town of Bavaria, being nine years earlier than the date given by Dr. Cotton in his Typographical Gazetteer.

4604 Mayerne Praseos Mayernianæ in Morbis internis præcipue Gravioribus et Chronicis Syntagma, 8vo. neat, 7*s.* 1690

4978 Murneri (Thomæ) Chartiludium Logicæ, seu Logica Poetica, vel Memorativa, first edition, with wood-cuts, wants title, but the work itself is perfect, 4to. very rare, 12*s*. Argent. 1509

 The wood-cuts in this volume are of a most rude and singular description. The work itself, on its publication, excited so much attention, that the author was publicly accused of magic, and cited to appear with his book before the doctors of the university, but he came off with great honour.

4979 Murneri Chartiludium Logicæ, Editio secunda, notis et conjecturis Jo. Bulesdens, with wood-cuts, 8vo. original binding, 1*l*. 11*s*. 6*d*. - - Paris. 1629

 The wood-cuts in this edition are copied from the first, and are of the same marvellous description. It is quite as rare as the first edition, and is called by Vogt "liber eximiæ raritatis, Morhofio nunquam visus." This copy cost 2*l*. 18*s*.

4980 Murneri Ludus Studentum Friburgensium, de Syllabarum Quantitate, Scaci Interpretatio, etc. very curious cuts, some of which are moveable, 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, extremely rare, 3*l*. 3*s*. - - Francphordiæ, 1511

 This work is pleasantly alluded to in the Epistolæ Obscurorum Virorum. It is there said of Murner, that "ipse est de Ordine S. Francisci, et est superioristа et præsupponit ita multa, quod non creditis. Dicunt quod fecit Cartas, et qui ludunt in illis Cartis discunt Grammaticam et Logicam! Et composuit unum ludum Scacci, in quo trahuntur quantitates syllabarum," etc. etc.

4981 Murneri Ritus et celebratio phase Judæorum cum orationibus eorum et benedictionibus mense ad litteram interpretatis, curious wood-cuts, 4to. fine copy, rare, 12*s*. Francphordiæ, 1512

5092 Nevylli (Alexandri) Angli, De furoribus Norfolciensium Ketto Duce, liber unus, ejusdem Norvicus, with introductory poems by T. Drant, and two dedications to Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, and Grindal, Archbishop of York, who succeeded Parker in this year, 4to. fine copy, neat, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* 1575

 Hearne states there are two editions in this year, and that the one containing the offensive passage to the Welchmen, was dedicated to Archbishop Parker only: the present contains both dedications, and the displeasing passage also. At the end of the history of Norwich, is a chronological list of the mayors, &c. from 1339 to 1574.

5093 New Britain.—Considerations on Buache's Memoir concerning New Britain, and the North Coast of New Guinea, by A. Dalrymple, 4to. sewed, 6*s.* - - 1790

5108 Nicholas (Harry) Comædia, a Worke in Rhyme, contayning an Enterlude of Myndes, witnessing a Man's fall from God and Christ, whereof the personages are Longing for Comfort, Good Informacion, Joye, Love, Reasonableness, Obedience, Trueth, Searcher, Understanding, &c. &c. black letter, 12mo. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, EXTREMELY RARE, 5*l.* 5*s.* (1574)

 The above singular work, a copy of which sold in Mr. Rhodes's sale for 16*l.* is of the very greatest rarity: it was printed about the year 1574. Nicholas was the father of the sect called the Family of Love, and his works were by a proclamation of Queen Elizabeth, ordered to be burnt, and all persons declared punishable for having them in their possession without the ordinary's permission.

5109 Nicholas' true Testification of the Spirituall Lande of Peace, which is the spirituall lande of Promyse, and the Holy Citee of Peace, or the heavenly Jerusalem, black letter, 12mo. 12*s.* - - - - n. d.

5114 Nicol's (Alex.) Nature without Art, or Nature's Progress in Poetry, 12mo. neat, 10*s.* 6*d.* - Edinb. 1739

 The Scots songs, new words to old tunes, in this volume, have much merit. There is also a fourth canto of Christ's Kirk on the Green, the first of which was written by the Scotish monarch, the second and third by Allan Ramsay. The collector of Scotish poetry will doubtless appreciate its rarity.

5115 Nicolai (Nicolo) Navigationi et Viaggi fatti nella Turchia, numerous plates, after the designs of Titian, folio, fine copy, vellum, very scarce, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* Venetia, Ziletti, 1580

5130 Nigelli Speculum Stultorum, Alia Editio, 4to. fine copy, morocco, gilt edges, very rare, 1l. 8s. Parisiis, 1506

 This singular and very curious work, written in elegiac verse, is a critique of the manners of the clergy at that period. The author flourished in the year 1200, in the reign of King John. "Quantumvis Joannes Sarisburiensis super ejus speculo scribens videatur eum tueri. Scripsit versu sub nomine Brunelli ad præfatum Guilhelmum Episcopum Eliensem Speculum Stultorum, librum unum. Suscipe pauca tibi veteris vuilhelme vigelli," &c.—Pitseus de Rebus Anglicis.

5152 NORMANDY.—COLLECTION OF SIXTY-ONE MOST BEAUTIFUL AND ELABORATE DRAWINGS OF SEALS, BY HOWLETT, ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE HISTORY OF NORMANDY AND ENGLAND, taken from Ancient Charters and other very early Deeds, deposited in this country. Amongst others will be found those of the Chapter of St. Mary of Hadintune, Abbey of Bec, Priory of Charity, Abbey of Cormel, Priory of St. Ebrulf, Abbey of the Holy Trinity, Exaqui, Church of St. Peter's, Abbey of Fiscam, Abbey of Fontevraield, Priory of St. Fremont, Church of St. Mary, Abbey of Longbridge, Priory of Longley, Convent of Lucerna, Abbey of Lyra, Monastery of Saumer, St. Mary of Prato, Monastery of Tint Shy, Abbey of Castellion, College of St. Mary, Abbey of Alneto, Abbey of St. Nicholas, Abbey of Savigny, Abbey of St. Austin, Priory of Mount Carmelites, Abbey of Cormelus, Convent of Seez, Monastery of Sagio, Abbey of Treport, House of St. Wulstan, and others, also the Seals of the Bishops, Abbots, Priors, &c. in 2 vols. 4to. elegantly bound in morocco, gilt edges, richly tooled, with borders of gold on the sides, 21*l*.

 Nothing can exceed the beauty and fidelity which has been displayed by Mr. Howlett in the above drawings, which were made with a view to publication, and are truly worthy that object. Their value is equal to medals, serving to fix disputed dates, &c., and it is very much enhanced by each drawing having underneath a description of the ancient document to which the original seal is attached, from which the drawing was taken: also the date and notice of the archives in which they are to be found, and the date when the religious house to which it relates was founded. They would make a most interesting series of illustrations to a new edition of Gough's History of the Alien Priories.

5153 NORMANDY.—COUSTUMIER DU PAYS DE NORMANDIE, PRINTED UPON VELLUM, folio, morocco elegant, gilt edges, 12*l*. 12*s*. Sæc. XV.

 PROBABLY UNIQUE. A splendid volume of the fifteenth century, presumed to be the first edition.

5154 Normandy.—Apuliensis (Gulielmi) Rerum in Italia ac Regno Neapolitano Normanicarum libri V. in verse, 4to. fine copy, vellum, rare, 15*s*. - - Rothomagi, 1582

 Dedicated to Lewis Baliol, in which are some curious particulars relative to BALIOL, KING OF SCOTS.

5155 Normandy.—Vita S. Leufredi Abbatis Monasterii, quod in Nortmannia situm, Crux Sancti Andoeni dicebatur, nunc autem appellatur, Crux Sancti Leufredi, 12mo. neat, 18*s*. Paris. 1598

 This saint's day is celebrated on the twenty-first of June. From the Memoir it appears that he was born in Yorkshire; and there is an enumeration of the miracles performed at his tomb. There are also some particulars of Aubert, Archbishop of Rouen; and from a grant of Charles the Simple, King of France, to this monastery, here printed, it would appear that Rollo, Duke of Normandy, if not the founder, was a considerable benefactor.

5156 North's (R. Lord) Observations and Advices Œconomical, 12mo. fine copy, in the original binding, 5*s*. - 1669

5157 North's (Lord Chief Justice) Arguments in the Case between Sir W. Soames, Sheriff of Suffolk, and Sir S. Barnardiston, Bt. adjudged in the Court of Exchequer, upon a Writ of Error, containing the reason of that Judgment, folio, sewed, 7*s*. - - - - 1689

 An interesting tract to the county collector.

5158 North's Life of Lord Keeper North, Baron Guildford, 2 vols. 8vo. very neat, 10*s*. 6*d*. - - 1808

 The second is an historical tract relating to England, of much interest, and of extreme rarity. The third tract is also excessively rare. Mr. Wilbraham, the late possessor of it, has written, that it is not mentioned by either Haym or De Bure, or by any bibliographer, and that, in fact, it is the only one he ever saw. The Funeral Solemnities of the Emperor Charles V. is a rare tract, and replete with historical detail. The volume was purchased in Mr. Wilbraham's sale for 8*l.*

Romæ, Geo. Herolt de Bamberga, MCCCCLXXXI.

 Seemiller begins his account of this impression in the following commendatory manner:—"Merito splendidissima dici potest hæc editio, omnium forte prima. Impressa est enim nitidissimæ chartæ charactere rotundo non nihil pinguiori et elegantissimo." For a long and interesting account of it, see the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, vol. i. p. 217-20. Dr. Dibdin there remarks, in conclusion, "Whoever examines attentively the formation of the types, and the decisive yet easy manner in which they meet the eye, upon paper of a mellow tint, will grieve that such a model of typographical elegance is not more generally imitated in the present day."

5262 ORLANDINO qual tratta d'arme e d'amor per Limerno Pitocco da Mantua composto, 8vo. half bound, VERY RARE, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*

Vinegia, per M. Sessa, 1530

 No other copy of this edition appears to have occurred in any sale. The edition of 1526 sold in Colonel Stanley's sale for 19*l.* 19*s.*

5264 Orlandino, per Limerno Pitocco da Mantoa Composta, with wood-cuts, very rare, small part of one leaf gone, 12mo. 10*s.* 6*d.* - - Vinegia, Sessa, 1539

 The author of this poem was Theofilo Folengi. In the first canto he consigns, with as little ceremony as the Priest and the Barber in Don Quixote, certain romances to the fire, as containing spurious adventures; he saves others as genuine romance writers, and manfully claims his station among them. May not this have suggested to Cervantes the inimitable review of Don Quixote's Library? He pursues precisely the same course, burning some and reserving others.

5265 Orleans.—La Vie et les Crimes de Philippe Duc d'Orleans, 8vo. neat, scarce, 5*s.* - Cologne, 1793

5326 OXFORDSHIRE ILLUSTRATIONS.—A MOST SPLENDID COLLECTION OF THIRTEEN HUNDRED BEAUTIFUL DRAWINGS AND ENGRAVINGS OF NEARLY EVERY SUBJECT OF INTEREST, ILLUSTRATIVE OF THIS COUNTY, COMBINING THE LABOURS OF TWO MOST ARDENT COLLECTORS DECEASED, AND FORMING A MOST IMPORTANT AND VALUABLE COLLECTION OF MATERIALS FOR THE HISTORY OF THIS COUNTY, AND ONE OF THE GREATEST DESIDERATA IN TOPOGRAPHICAL LITERATURE, in 6 large vols. atlas folio, elegantly bound in morocco, gilt edges, with broad borders of gold, 135l.

The above collection, most briefly described, would form a catalogue of themselves. The following short notices will convey some faint idea of its interest, which must be seen to be appreciated.

The drawings consist of nearly one hundred, by Buckler, W. Turner, N. Whittock, G. Lambert, J. Varley, J. Richards, Fisher, G. Powle, and other artists, comprising churches, monuments, seats of the nobility and gentry, ruins, antiquities, and other objects of interest in the county.

The engravings are very choice impressions, and consist of many views of all the churches, colleges, halls, libraries, theatre, schools, Clarendon press, and other public buildings, views of the different streets, gardens, ancient houses, painted windows, antiquities, and every object of curiosity in the university and city of Oxford.

Churches, nearly or quite every one in the county, with its principal monuments, brasses, ancient inscriptions, arms of the families, ancient fonts, and other portions curiously carved, or otherwise objects of interest to the antiquarian or historian.

Numerous views of the various abbeys, priories, hospitals, and other ancient religious houses, formerly standing in the county, of which but few fragments now remain.

BLENHEIM AND THE MARLBOROUGH FAMILY. This portion may safely be pronounced unique, consisting of probably every engraving of this splendid edifice, its offices, gardens, grounds, parks, bridges, monuments, and numerous other objects of attraction, from its first erection to the present time, with various portraits of the different branches of the family from the illustrious warrior to the present time, both male and female, most brilliant impressions, several proofs, and others of rare occurrence.

Numerous views of the royal and other palaces, seats of the nobility and gentry throughout the kingdom, both ancient and modern, many of which no longer exist; those of Nuneham, the seat of the noble family of Harcourt, include the private etchings of Viscount Nuneham, and many others of great rarity and interest.

Views of the City of Oxford, and other various towns and villages, are very numerous and interesting.

PORTRAITS.—A most numerous collection of the celebrated characters that have lived or been connected with the university, city, or county, during the last century and upwards, those of the Marlborough family are probably unique; many of the Harcourt and other noble families, chancellors, bishops, judges, heads of houses, professors, eminent divines, various officers of the university and city, together with other learned men who have received their education in it; also many of Fair Rosamond and other noted characters, a few caricatures, &c. &c.

ANTIQUITIES.—The engravings of ancient Roman pavements, marbles, statues, vases, cups, coins, seals, and other antiquities, are very numerous and interesting.

Ruins of various ancient buildings throughout the county are very numerous, particularly those of Godstow abbey, nunnery, the tower, Fair Rosamond's bower, and others connected with her life and death; also Woodstock, Beaumont, and Ewelm palaces, and others equally interesting, together with Dorchester, Osney, and other abbeys.

Bridges throughout the county are very numerous, and some very ancient and interesting.

The monumental drawings and inscriptions are also extremely beautiful and numerous; they illustrate not only all parts of the county, but the history of nearly every family of note at all connected with it, from the most remote period to the present time.

The numerous views of Oxford and its environs, and other beautiful prospects throughout the county, include nearly or quite every picturesque spot.

Maps of the county and portions thereof, nearly all ever engraved, from the earliest period to the present time.

The engravings are principally by Buck, Loggan, Parr, Winstanley, Lord Newnham, Harris, Smith, Watson, Earlom, Sherwin, Schenck, Gunst, Houbraken, Vertue, Simon, Heiss, Houston, Godfrey, Kip, Rooker, Basire, Skelton, James, and numerous others.

5327 OXFORDSHIRE.—AN INTERESTING AND MOST VALUABLE COLLECTION OF UPWARDS OF ONE HUNDRED TRACTS, Illustrative of the County, University, and City of Oxford, from 1604 to 1822, fine copies, uniformly bound in 8 vols. calf, very neat, 18*l.* 18*s.* - - 1604 to 1822

 This highly valuable and interesting collection must be seen to be appreciated. They contain much matter relative to the privileges, statutes, visitations, rules, and government of the University. Also much historical matter relative to it and the county at large, particularly during the civil wars, when King Charles I. held his court there. There is also much matter of local interest to the county collector. A brief list of the titles of each tract may be obtained for inspection.

5328 Oxford.—Carmen Honorarium ad Dominum Jo. Cirenbergium ob Acceptum Synodalium Epistolarum Concilii Basiliensis, quod Thomas Roe Magnæ Britanniæ Legatus, Oxoniensi Bibliotheæ transmissit ac dono dedit, 4to. very scarce, 7*s.* 6*d.* - - Oxon. 1631

5362 Pacei (Richardi) Invictissimi Regis Angliæ (Henrici VIII.) Primarii Secretarii, ejusque apud Elvetios Oratoris, de Fructu qui ex doctrina percipitur liber, 4to. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, VERY RARE, 2*l*. 2*s*. Basileæ, 1517

 The author of this curious volume, says Wood, was one of the principal lights of learning in his time; he is spoken of in terms of much commendation by Erasmus, Tonstal, Latymer, Colet, and others. Of his early education he himself, in this volume, relates a curious anecdote. He states that Thomas Langton, Bishop of Winchester, noticing in him a knowledge of medicine far above his age, remarked that he was reserved for better things; and a few days afterwards sent him, at his own expense, to a school in Italy to learn the arts, at the same time supplying him with an annual allowance. Cuthbert Tonstal and Latimer appear to have been among the earliest of his preceptors.

While recommending to his readers a proper study of orthography as useful to every one, the author further remarks, that the difference in the spelling of some words by various persons is very singular; and he quotes for an example the word causa as being generally spelt with a single s, but by Aldus with two.

Pace was employed by Henry VIII. in several embassies, which he performed with great honour to himself and the English nation. He afterwards settled at Oxford, and was made Dean of St. Paul's, and is spoken of by Stowe, and other historians, as being a man of great integrity and honour. The above work is, as the title indicates, written for the express purpose of showing the advantage of study; and is so interspersed with anecdotes of Sir Thomas More, and others, that it has been rendered not only instructive, but entertaining.

5363 PACICHELLI.—Memorie de' Viaggi per l'Europa Christiana, scritte a diversi in occasion de' suoi Ministerii dall' Abbate Gio. Batista Pacichelli, 3 vols. 12mo. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, VERY RARE, 4*l*. 4*s*. Napoli, 1685

 First edition and extremely rare, being apparently unknown to most bibliographers. The second volume contains his travels in England, Scotland, and Ireland. No other perfect copy has occurred for sale in this country for many years. Sold in Mr. Hanrott's sale for 8*l*. 8*s*.

5364 PACIFICI MAXIMI POETÆ ESCULANI HECATELEGIUM, sive Elegiæ nonnullæ Jocosæ et festivæ; laudes summorum virorum, etc. FIRST EDITION, 4to. very fine copy, OF THE LAST DEGREE OF RARITY, 18*l.* 18*s.*

Florentiæ, per Ant. Mischominum, MCCCCLXXXIX.

 This excessively curious work is faithfully entitled, "one of the scarcest volumes in existence." No other copy is to be found in this country, either in public or private libraries. One of the poems fixes the date of the venereal disease as far back as 1489, before the discovery of the New World, whence it has been said to have proceeded. The present is the only perfect copy known. Only two other copies are ascertained to exist in Europe, viz. at the Library of St. Geneviève, in Paris, and in the Imperial Library, Vienna, but both are imperfect.

5365 Pacifici Maximi Lucretia, et Virginia, 12mo. old french morocco, gilt edges, very scarce, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*

5375 Pagnini (Sancti) Isagoge ad Linguam Græcam capessendam VII. continens libros quibus et Lexicon annexum est ordine Alphabetico secundum Declinationes et conjugationes, etc. 2 vols. 4to. very fine copy, morocco, gilt edges, EXTREMELY RARE, 4*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* Avenioni, per Jo. de Channey, 1525

 With the Aldine device on the last leaf of each volume. Such is the excessive rarity of the work, that it has escaped the researches of almost all bibliographers. Brunet calls it "edition très rare," and M. Renouard, in observing that Channey sometimes used the Aldine device, simply states that he used it to an edition of "Pagnini Isagoge," &c. without date. Renouard likewise attributes a New Testament, printed in 1638, to this printer, and further says, "Il est évident que c'est toujours la même imprimerie qui, de J. Crespin, passa à Vignon, ensuite à Pierre Aubert, à Pierre Chouet, et enfin dans les mains de Jehan de Chenney, dont on connoit peu d'editions." By this paragraph, and by his attributing to the same printer a book printed upwards of 100 years later than the present, it may be safely asserted that he had never seen the work, as the date, place, and printer's name are distinctly given.

5376 PAINTERS.—The true Effigies of the most eminent Painters, and other famous Artists that have flourished in Europe, with their lives, one hundred and twenty-two portraits, by the most celebrated engravers, folio, fine copy, neat, 2*l.* 2*s.* 1694

 This is a most curious volume, as illustrative of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. It was written by Robert Parsons, the jesuit, on the publication of the edict against the Catholics. The work commences with an abstract of the lives and actions of Lord Chancellor Bacon, Dudley Earl of Leicester, Sir F. Walsingham, Sir C. Hatton, and Sir W. Cecil, (afterwards Lord Burleigh,) against all of whom the writer is very furious. It also contains some singular notices of Sir Francis Drake and Sir Richard Grenville, described as pirates and robbers, also of Mary queen of Scots, Henry VIII., Anne Boleyn, Earls of Arundel and Essex, Cardinal Allen, Pole, Cranmer, Throckmorton, W. Stanton, Sir T. Wyat, Udall, Hacket, Bishop Jewell, Earl of Seymour, Sir T. Pope, R. Gage, Duke of Hamilton, Douglas family, Lord Darnley, husband of the queen of Scots, Earl of Sussex's Expedition to Scotland, also Lord Scrope's defeat of the Spanish Armada, Dukes of Somerset and Norfolk, Sir T. Howard, Sir John Perrott, viceroy of Ireland, origin of the Tudors, Owen Tudor, Lord Burleigh's Justitia Britannica, Lady Jane Grey, Lady Morley, T. Sherwood, account of the different persons who suffered for their religion in England, Cuthbert Mayne, Woodhouse, Nicolas Heath, Ford, Kirby, Richardson, Archbishop Sandys, Sir Walter Raleigh, &c. &c.

 The rarity of this collection of pasquinades is well known. On its first publication nearly all the copies were destroyed, for never were the pope and monks attacked with more poignant satire, wit, and ridicule. In the days of Heinsius, its rarity was such, that he cheerfully gave 100 Venetian ducats for a copy, which he considered to be the only one in existence. Col. Stanley's copy, in his sale, produced 11*l.* 11*s.*, and Mr. Roscoe's 8*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

 Such is the great rarity of this volume, that it induced Sir Egerton Brydges to reprint it, as his contribution to the members of the Roxburghe club. In some remarks attached to that volume on the life of Tasso, it is observed, that "Peregrini's orations are in general written with good taste. Serapi praises this, and bears testimony to its rarity." The portrait on the title is very characteristic.

5523 Peregrinis (Barth. de) Opus divinum de sacra ac fertili Bergomensi Vinea ex diversis autenticis catholicisque libris, &c. 4to. clean copy, scarce, 3*s.* - Brixiæ, 1553

Thusculani in ædibus Alexandri Paganini, 1522

 Reprinted from Aldus's edition, and is an indispensable volume in any Aldine series. Brunet remarks that it is an "Edition fait avec des caracterès qui ne sont pas ordinaires; c'est une espèce d'italique, dont plusieurs lettres approchent plus du romain que de l'italique."

5542 Perotti (Steph.) Oratio de Admirandis gestis quibus Archiducissa Austriæ, Peregrinationem suam Lauretanam clariorem reddidit, 4to. scarce, 3*s*. - Camerini, 1614

5543 Perronet (E.) Mitre, a Sacred Poem, 8vo. very scarce, the author's copy, with some MS. corrections, 1*l*. 1*s*. 1756

 The author of this bitter satire was son of the vicar of Shoreham, in Kent. It was printed at a private press, without a title. The satire was so very violent that the author's friends prevailed upon him to suppress it most rigorously. The above copy contains a MS. title in the author's autograph with the above date.

5544 Perry's (Capt. J.) Answer to the Objections against the making of a Bason, with Reasons for the Bettering of the Harbour of Dublin, 8vo. sewed, 3*s*. - Dublin, 1721

5548 PERSIAN.—Husn oo Dil, or Beauty and Heart, an Allegory, composed by Alfettah of Nishapoor, Persian and English, 4to. boards, 7*s*. 6*d*. - - 1828

 Translated from a beautiful manuscript on silky paper, powdered with gold dust, and highly ornamented by the hand of Abdunahman in [1491] the year of the Hegira 896.

The idioms of this translation, which is perfectly literal, conform to the Persian order; that the oriental student may more readily trace the words, as they correspond with each other in the two languages.

5549 PERSIAN.—Husn oo Dil, another copy, LARGE PAPER, 4to. boards, uncut, 12*s*. - - - 1828

 Only a few copies printed on large paper.

5550 PERSIA.—Journal of the British Embassy to Persia, embellished with nearly one hundred views, taken in India and Persia, also a Dissertation upon the Antiquities of Persepolis, by W. Price, F.R.S.L. Assistant Secretary to the Rt. Hon. Sir Gore Ouseley, Bt. Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from his Britannic Majesty to the Court of Persia, also a Journal of Travels through Armenia and Asia Minor to Constantinople and Smyrna, with the voyage of the embassy thence to England, 2 vols in 1, oblong folio, morocco elegant, gilt edges, 3*l*. 13*s*. 6*d*. - 1832

5551 Persio (Ant.) Trattato dell' Ingegno dell' Huomo, 8vo. fine copy, scarce, 18*s*. - Venetia, Aldo, 1576

sine ullâ notâ, circa MCCCCLXXII.

 Dr. Dibdin ascribes this "rude and very rare impression" to the press of Martin Flach, and remarks that though he cannot affirm it to be the first edition of the poet, it is undoubtedly of a more ancient date than that of 1475. "There is a great appearance of antiquity in the rudeness of the characters, and the paper is stout and excellent."—Bibl. Spenceriana, vol. ii. p. 224. Sold in Earl Spencer's sale for 6*l*. 6*s*.

5553 Persii Satyræ, with numerous Manuscript notes, 4to. scarce edition, 5*s*. 6*d*. - - sine ullâ notâ.

Lugduni sumpt. Jo. de Platea et Jacobi Myt, 1510

5556 Persii Satyræ; Phil. Beroaldi Oratio habita in Enarratione Persii, 4to. fine copy, uncut, 7*s*. 6*d*. Daventriæ, Pafraet, 1512

 Cost the late possessor 1*l*. 5*s*.

5557 Persii Satyræ cum paraphrasi Fed. Ceruti, 8vo. fine copy, neat, very scarce, 8*s*. 6*d*. - - Veronæ, 1597

 Purchased by the late possessor for 1*l*. 5*s*.

5558 Persius.—Barth. Fontii Explanatio in Persium, 4to. very large copy, half bound, neat, EXTREMELY RARE, 1*l*. 15*s*.
Florent. J. de Ripoli, MCCCCLXXVII.

 The productions of Ripoli are of very uncommon occurrence. Only two specimens occur in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana. Fontius' Commentary is highly praised by critics, as being a "judicious and well-arranged work."

5559 Persii Satyrarum Liber, ex Editione Casauboni, beautifully printed, 4to. uncut, 10*s*. 6*d*. - Bulmer, 1789

 Privately printed, and very rare.

5560 Persius's Satyres, English and Latin, with Notes by Sheridan, 1739.—Catalogue of the curious Library of T. Rawlinson, Esq. sold by Ballard, pars Altera, 1729.—Vindication of Lord Carteret, 1730.—J. Hodgson's Introduction to Chronology, 1747. — Letter from Stanislaus, King of Poland, containing his Surprizing Escape from Dantzick, &c. by Lockman, 1734.—Four Letters published in Old England, 1743, in one vol. 8vo. half bound, neat, 6*s*.

5561 Peter (John) Artificial Versifying: A New Way to Make Latin Verses, whereby any one of ordinary capacity that only knows the A B C, and can count 9, though he understands not one word of Latin, or what a verse means, may be plainly taught to make thousands of Hexameter and Pentameter Verses, which shall be True Latine, True Verse, and Good Sense, 8vo. sewed, scarce, 5*s*. 6*d*. 1679

5562 Peters' Patern newly Revived, with Additions, or the perfect path to Worldly Happiness, in a Funeral Sermon for Hugh Peters, 4to. 4*s*. - - 1659

5563 Petition to the people for a Christian and unbloudy decision of Cases of Conscience in the point of Obedience, humbly directed unto the whole one English and Welsh Nation, 4to. very neat, 12*s*. - - - 1642

 An interesting volume; the last piece is entitled, England's Tragedie, acted by four living beasts, and two killing beasts.

5564 Petrarchæ Epistola ad D. Jo. Florentinum Poetam, de Historiâ Griseldis mulieris maxime Constantie et Patientie. In preconium omnium laudabilium mulierum, FIRST EDITION, 4to. fine copy, neat, gilt edges, very rare, 2*l*. 5*s*.
sine ullâ notâ, [Ulric Zell] circa MCCCCLXVIII.

 "First edition of the well-known history of PATIENT GRISEL." Sold in the La Vallière sale for 126 francs, and in Mr. Nicol's, in 1825, for 7*l*. 7*s*.

5565 Petrarchæ Liber Consolationis de Remediis utriusque Fortunæ, per Aretinum traductus, FIRST EDITION, folio, fine copy, neat, very rare, 2*l*. 2*s*. sine ullâ notâ, (Conr. Fyner.)

5566 Petrarchæ Secretum, seu de Contemptu Mundi, folio, a very fine and clean copy, 18*s*. circa MCCCCLXXII.

 EDITIO PRINCEPS.—This edition is printed without any indication of date, place, or name of printer. It is distinguished by the peculiar formation of the capital letter R. Both De Bure and Morelli suppose it to have been executed about the year 1472. "There is a sharpness and newness of character about the impression," says Dr. Dibdin, "which may justify such an inference." It is described in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, vol. iv. pp. 535-6.

5567 Petrarchæ Liber de Vita Solitaria, FIRST EDITION, folio, fine copy, very neat, rare, 18*s*. Sine loco aut anno, (Mentelin)

 The above copy cost the late possessor 6*l*. 6*s*.

5568 Petrarcha de Remediis utriusque Fortunæ, 4to. half bound, neat, scarce, 15*s*. (Argent.) circa MCCCCLXXXV.

5569 Petrarca Triumphi, col Commento di Bern. Ilicino, gli Sonetti e Canzoni, con la Interpretatione della M. Francesco Philelpho, wood-cuts, folio, fine copy, half bound, neat, 2l. 2s. Venetia, per Pietro de Zohane, MCCCCXCIV.

 This is an edition of very great rarity, and has escaped the researches of nearly all bibliographers. Panzer mentions only the latter part [Sonetti], as if it was a separate publication from the former: they are both evidently by the same printer, and most probably published at the same time.

5571 Petrarca Sonetti et Canzoni, 8vo. fine copy, in russia, marbled edges, very rare, 2l. 2s.

 A counterfeit of the Aldine edition of 1521, supposed to have been fabricated at Venice by Gregorio de Gregori.

5582 Petrarch.—Due Canzoni del Petrarca tradotte, in Verso Inglese, da Barbarino Wilmot, con una Canzone de T. J. Mathias, 8vo. very scarce, 7*s*. 6*d*. - Napoli, 1819

 Only a few copies privately printed for presents.

5583 Petrarca de los Remedios contra prospera y adversa fortuna por Francisco de Madrid, very fine copy, Sevilla por Jacobo Cromberger, 1513.—Petrarca con los Seys Triunfos de Toscano sacados en Castellano con el comento que cobrellos se hizo, por Antonio de Obregon, Capellan de Rey, unfortunately slightly imperfect at the end, Sevilla, 1532, in one vol. folio, vellum, both very rare, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*.

 The above volume was purchased by the late possessor for 15*l*. 15*s*: The first book was unknown to Nicolas Antonio. The name of the translator is found in his dedicatory epistle to the great Gonzalo Fernandez de Cordova. The second work is printed in the Gothic type, and adorned with the usual wood-cuts, which are very spirited and brilliant. Such is the rarity of it, that it is not only unknown to Spanish writers, but Nic. Antonio asserts that the above translation by Ant. de Obregon, first appeared at Salamanca in 1581, nearly fifty years after the publication of the present edition. Nothing but the extraordinary rarity of it could have excused so wide an error. The translation is in verse, surrounded by the copious glosa.

5584 Petrarca, Triumphos, traduzidos en Lengua Castellana en la medida y numero de versos, que tienen en el Toscano, y con nueva glosa, por Antonio de Obregon, 4to. vellum, scarce, 12*s*. - - - Medina, 1555

5591 Petri Blesensis, Bathoniensis Archidiaconi Epistolæ, FIRST EDITION, folio, very rare, 3*l.* 3*s.*
Sine ullâ notâ, (Bruxellis, circa MCCCCLXXVIII.)

 An interesting volume to the collector of English history. The second letter, which is addressed to king Henry II. of England, is consolatory on the death of the king's son; the twenty-second, which is addressed to John of Salisbury, is consolatory on the exile of Thomas, Archbp. of Canterbury; and the twenty-seventh is on the death of the same. The sixty-fourth relates to the redemption of the king of England from prison, who was taken in a voyage to the Holy Land; the seventy-eighth is a congratulation of the new church of Bath; the 144th and 145th relate to the capture of the king's son by the Emperor Frederick, &c. &c. The author was vice-chancellor to the king of England from the year 1160 to 1200; he was archdeacon of Bath and London, and chancellor of the archbishop of Canterbury. The only copy mentioned by Brunet is one selling in 1830 for 10*l.* 10*s.*

5683 Pisis (Rainerii de) Pantheologia, EDITIO PRINCEPS, 2 ponderous folio volumes, in the original binding, RARE, 3*l.* 3*s.*
Nuremb. per J. Sensenchmid de Egra et H. Kefer de Magunta. MCCCCLXXIII.

 This article may be safely pronounced as fine a specimen of those printers as can be produced, and an equally desirable one of ancient typography: for paper, brilliancy, execution, and condition, it may be pronounced matchless. Brunet calls it "très rare." It does not appear that Earl Spencer possessed a copy before the purchase of the Duke di Cassano's collection; a copy is described in the Catalogue, p. 181, where Dr. Dibdin calls them "magnificent volumes, and a specimen of an uncommon type," of which he has given a fac-simile.

5684 Pisis (Rainerii de) Pantheologia, Alia Editio, 2 very large vols. folio, a fine sound and perfect copy, in the original binding, with clasps, EXTREMELY RARE, 4*l.* 4*s.*
Norimbergæ, Coburger, MCCCCLXXVII.

 "This may be justly esteemed a most magnificent specimen of early typography, and of Coburger's press in particular. The paper is firm and white, the ink brilliantly black, and the disposition and arrangement of each page admirable."

 Two very important and highly interesting volumes in dramatic history, so many of the London favourites having made their first debut in this company. Austin, in a folio sheet of four pages, has proudly recounted these worthies, exulting at their success.

5719 Play Bills.—A complete series of the Bills of the various performances at Drury Lane and Covent Garden Theatres, from 1774 to 1830 inclusive, 55 vols. folio, half bound, neat, very rare, 52*l.* 10*s.* 1774-1830

 This highly valuable collection was formed by Mr. Fawcett, comedian; each volume contains a MS. Index of Contents, with some notes by Mr. Fawcett and his father, and various additional documents, illustrative of the two theatres. For the more easy reference, they are bound up together, and placed opposite each other. It is doubtful if such a complete series could now be formed at any price. They were purchased by the late Mr. Hurd, in Mr. Fawcett's sale, for one hundred guineas, at whose sale they were purchased by me for the late eminent actor, Charles Matthews, Esq.

 Renouard devotes a long account to this last book, in which he takes an opportunity of displaying the mild and benevolent conduct of Cardinal Pole, contrasted with that of Queen Mary and her obsequious Council. For his moderation Pole was accused at Rome of Lutheranism. Renouard infers that, if the conduct of the (second) Reformation of England had been entirely confided to Pole, England would, to this day, have been under the protection and care of the Court of Rome. M. Renouard extracts a long passage from this interesting book relative to the marriages of the clergy, and says, "que je crois utile de rapporter ici à cause de la grande rareté de ce volume." It is one of the most interesting tracts, relating to one of the most important periods of English History.

5963 Portio (Camillo) Congiura de' Baroni del Regno di Napoli contra il Re Ferdinando primo, ORIGINAL EDITION, 4to. vellum, 15*s.* - Roma, P. Manutio, 1565

 This work is of considerable rarity. It seems to have been but imperfectly known to Renouard when he published the former edition of his work; for Brunet says, in speaking of it, "pour avoir eu trop de confiance aux Ann. des Alde de M. Renouard, nous avons commis une erreur grave dans les deux premières éditions de ce Manuel."

5964 Portio Congiura de' Baroni del Regno di Napoli contra il Re Ferdinando Primo, counterfeit of the preceding Aldine edition, 4to. 15*s.* - - - Roma, 1565

 Renouard, while noticing the genuine Aldine edition of this work, observes, "J'ai de ce même livre une réimpression absolument calquée sur la précédente, au point même qu'on en a copié les fautes ainsi que l'errata, qui termine le dernier feuillet. L'ancre y est contrefaite sur le titre, et certainement ce volume n'est pas édition Manutienne. On peut reconnoitre cette réimpression à ce que les deux chiffres de la première ligne de la dernière page sont par erreur 73 au lieu de 75." The present is the same as referred to in the Annales des Alde, and on comparison, although a reprint, page by page, line by line, there are numerous typographical discrepancies to afford sufficient data for detection. Both editions are, however, of very uncommon occurrence; the latter certainly unknown to Brunet. Sold in Sir M. Sykes's sale for 2*l.* 3*s.*

5965 Portland Estate.—Private Act to enable the Guardians of Lord George Bentinck, second son of the late Duke of Portland, to make Leases of certain Houses, Grounds, and Tenements in Soho, &c. folio, sewed, 5*s.* - (1704)

POPULAR AND ESTEEMED ORIENTAL ELEMENTARY AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS, BY THE LATE WILLIAM PRICE, ASSISTANT SECRETARY TO THE RIGHT HON. SIR GORE OUSELEY, BART. AMBASSADOR EXTRAORDINARY AND MINISTER PLENIPOTENTIARY FROM HIS BRITANNIC MAJESTY TO THE COURT OF PERSIA.

6031 GRAMMAR OF THE THREE PRINCIPAL ORIENTAL LANGUAGES, Hindostanee, Persian, and Arabic, on a Plan entirely new and perfectly easy; to which is added a set of Persian Dialogues, composed by Mirza Mohammed Saulih, of Shiraz, with an English Translation, 4to. boards, 18*s.* 1823

6032 ELEMENTS OF THE SANSCRIT LANGUAGE: or an Easy Guide to the Indian Tongues, 4to. boards, 10*s*. 6*d*. 1828

 The Sanscrit, a language of high antiquity, has been spoken by the Indians from a very remote period. The motives which induced the present publication are thus explained by the late respected author :—

"After having studied some of the languages spoken in the East, with tolerable success, I applied myself to the Sanscrit, as the chief source from which many of the modern dialects are derived; but the vast number of superficial rules that appeared in the grammars, seemed an insurmountable barrier. Having advanced in the first principles, I selected such simple rules as were the basis of others of a more prolix nature; and as I advanced in the acquirement, I found I had acquired a very useful grammar, containing every fundamental rule sufficient for analysing any compound word or seutence, aud for the translation of the most learned works in the language.

"When in India, I collected some valuable treatises on the rudiments of Sanscrit verse; these and my own observations interspersed with the rules already alluded to, form the Grammar I now venture to lay before the public, trusting that a candid and impartial view will be taken of a work, in the composition of which I have made utility my principal object."

6033 GRAMMAR OF THE HINDOOSTANEE LANGUAGE; to which are added, Selections from the best Authors, familiar Phrases and Dialogues, in the proper character, 4to. boards, 10*s*. 6*d*. 1828

 Particular care has been taken to render the rules of this modern dialect, derived from the Sanscrit, Arabic, and Persian, clear and concise. The Hindoos retain a greater mixture of Sanscrit, while the Mussulman part of the people copiously tincture their expressions with Arabic and Persian words and phrases. A partial knowledge of the three languages is therefore required, and the Elementary Grammar of the Sanscrit is intended as an accompaniment to this of the Hindoostanee, by which the latter may be traced to its primitive sources. As to the Arabic and Persian, all that is requisite for the acquirement of the Arabic, will be found in the Grammar of the three principal Oriental Languages.

6034 HUSN OO DIL, OR BEAUTY AND HEART, a pleasing Allegory, composed by Alfettah of Nishapoor, Persian and English, 4to. bds. 7*s*. 6*d*. - - 1828

 Translated from a beautiful manuscript on silky paper, powdered with gold dust, and highly ornamented by the hand of Abdurrahman, in the year of the Hegirah 896.

The idioms of this translation, which is perfectly literal, conform to the Persian order, that the oriental student may more readily trace the words, as they correspond with each other in the two languages.

6035 DIALOGUES IN THE PERSIAN LANGUAGE, printed in the Roman Character, WITH A FRENCH TRANSLATION in a parallel column, 4to. sewed, 3*s*.

 These Dialogues of Mirza Mohammed Saulib, of Shiraz, are printed for the use of students who may not be familiar with the Persian. The orthography is suited to English pronunciation, which the translator conceived to be better adapted to the purpose, than that of the French or any other European language.

6036 DIALOGUES composed by Mirzah Sauli, of Shiraz, in Persian Characters, WITH AN ENGLISH TRANSLATION, as literal as possible, in parallel columns, 4to. sewed, 4*s*.

 The only Persian Dialogues hitherto known, are those in the Persian Moonshee, composed by Indian Moonshees, unaccustomed to modern Persian, and are replete with pedantic phrases and obsolete words. The present attempt will therefore be hailed as no inconsiderable addition to the fund of Oriental literature, and as a practical means of rendering the attainment of the Persian language less difficult to students.

6037 JOURNAL OF TRAVELS THROUGH PERSIA, ARMENIA, AND ASIA MINOR, THE ROUTE OF SIR GORE OUSELEY'S DIPLOMATIC MISSION FROM ENGLAND TO THE COURT OF PERSIA; with a Dissertation upon the Antiquities of Persepolis, illustrated by nearly 80 views of places, monuments, inscriptions, &c., second edition, 2 vols. in one, oblong folio, bds. 2l. 2s. 1832

6038 Journal.—Another copy, 2 vols. in one, oblong folio, elegantly bound in morocco, with borders of gold on the sides, gilt edges, 3l. 13s. 6d. - - 1832

 The illustrations of this highly esteemed work, which are very numerous, are many of them admirable for their spirit and effect, and exhibit much that has hitherto been unattainable by any European traveller.

The second volume comprises the Journal of the route of a portion of the embassy back to Constantinople and Smyrna, and the voyage thence to England.

Only a few copies of these valuable publications remain on hand at the above reduced prices.

6074 Proclamations.—A most important, extensive, and valuable Collection of Five Hundred Original State Proclamations, issued by King James I., King Charles I., Oliver Cromwell, King Charles II., King James II., King William III., Queen Anne, and King George I., all in the finest state of preservation 1604-1727

 So extensive and intrinsically valuable a series of Original Proclamations has not hitherto been offered for sale. One volume, at Lord Guildford's sale, containing those only issued by King Charles the Second, was purchased for the State Paper Office for 115*l.* 5*s.* The present series forms a most curious illustration of an interesting and important period of our history.

Among others will be found many relating to the coinage, of peculiar interest and value to the Numismatist, including that for "Publishing the Stamps," of which only two others are known.

The numerous restrictive measures resorted to during the reign of King

Charles the First, to prevent the increase of the plague, at different periods, will show too clearly the dreadful visitations which England underwent during this period.

To the Civic records, here are numerous additions in almost every variety, either in the government, economy, or amusements of London, and the many references to the proper ordering of persons resorting to the Court to be cured of the King's Evil, exhibits the popular credulity in that matter to have been general.

Those issued during the Protectorate of Cromwell will be perused with great interest, particularly that declaring Charles Stuart a Traitor and Rebel, and also that for the apprehension of John Mordaunt, son to the Earl of Peterborough, and others.

Among those issued by King Charles the Second is that for the summoning of various persons who assisted in the horrible murder of King Charles the First.

Likewise that for the calling in and suppression of two books written by John Milton, the excessive rarity of which is well known; and, either viewed as to its importance in the literary history of England, or as to the threatened punishment to be personally inflicted on him, as a Commonwealth-man, is altogether an object of singular attraction, which may never again occur to gratify the antiquary.

Those relating to the discovery and apprehension of various persons, will be found to be of remarkable interest; among others worthy of remark, are those for the apprehension of the Duke of Buckingham; Col. E. Ludlow; the murderers of Sir Edmund Bury Godfrey; the Duke of Monmouth, with a reward of £5000 for his body, dead or alive; Henry, Lord Delamere; Charles, Earl of Macclesfield; Bishop of Ely, W. Penn, and James Grahame; Sir James Montgomery and others; W. Standish, of Standish Hall, in the county of Lancaster; James, Duke of Berwick; Sir G. Barclay and others, &c. &c. There are also various relating to the Suppression of Popery, Discovery of the Rye House Plot, Prohibition of Bartholomew, Sturbridge, Exeter, and other Fairs, Suppression of Pirates in America, Reduction of Ireland, Theatres, Coffee Houses, Bedford Level, &c. &c.

Among those issued by King George the First is that ordering the payment of £100,000 to any person who shall seize and secure the Pretender in case he shall land, &c. &c.

6323 Retza (Francisci de) Comestorium Viciorum, remarkably fine sound copy, large folio, morocco elegant, gilt edges, rare, 4*l*. 4*s*. - Nurembergæ, MCCCCLXX.

 First edition, and the first book printed at Nuremberg, with a date. "It is a magnificent monument of the splendour of the art of printing in its infancy in that city." See Spencer Catalogue, Panzer, and many other bibliographers. Sold in Sir M. M. Sykes's sale for 11*l*. It is also a singularly curious work, exposing the vices of the age in an unsparing manner. One chapter is devoted in endeavouring to prove that lawyers are "detestable to God," that they "defraud the just," are "more corruptible than others," and "are grievously punished." Another is against adultery, and another against the singing of women. The following also are treated on and reprehended: plurality of benefices, drunkenness, blasphemy, on expensive equipages, fornication, war, excessive eating, homicide, disobedience, envy, hypocrisy, anger, desire of wealth, the decoration of churches, building large houses, rebellion, dress, polygamy, &c. &c.

6414 Roderici Zamorensis Speculum Vitæ Humanæ, folio, fine copy, in rich old French morocco, gilt edges, bound by De Rome, rare, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*.
(Argent.) à Martino Flach, MCCCCLXXV.

 The volume under description may be said to be of considerable rarity, and it is extremely important, since it is one of the very few books in which the name of Martin Flach appears as the printer; and from which we ascertain with certainty that the Sallust and other books, exhibiting a similar character, were executed by the same artist. The collections of Gaignat, Valliere, Crevenna, and Pinelli, do not appear to have possessed it.—Bibliotheca Spenceriana. Sold in Mr. Hibbert's sale for 4*l*. 4*s*.

6425 Rolland's (John) Seven Sages in Scottish Metre, 4to. bds. uncut, 7*l.* 7*s.* - - Edinburgh, 1837

 A splendid volume, privately printed for the members of the Bannatyne Club. The collection of tales, entitled "The Seven Sages," or the "The Seven Wise Masters of Rome," may be regarded as one of the most popular works of fiction of the middle ages. "Few works," Mr. Dunlop observes, "are more interesting and curious than the Seven Wise Masters, in illustrating the genealogy of fiction, or its rapid and almost unaccountable transition from one country to another."

 THE PRECEDING SINGULARLY CURIOUS AND UNIQUE COLLECTION OF SPANISH POEMS WAS PRINTED ABOUT 1530. They are written in a very old style of the Spanish language, which shows that they must have been composed either in the fourteenth, or at the very beginning of the fifteenth century. The compactness of the narrative, the sudden transitions from scene to scene, to follow and carry the subject to an end, in the proposed history to be sung or lamented in the romance, is truly enchanting and admirable.

THEY ARE ALL OF SURPASSING RARITY; FOR EVEN IN SPAIN, EITHER IN PUBLIC OR PRIVATE COLLECTIONS, NOT A SINGLE COPY OF ANY OF THEM IS BELIEVED TO EXIST; nor are they inserted in any of the last selections and collections, published by Dr. Raymond Fernandez, Bohel de Faber, and D. Augustin Duran.

6437 ROMANCE.—Historie der Melusina, FIRST EDITION IN GERMAN, with seventy exceedingly curious and highly spirited wood engravings, folio, EXTREMELY RARE, 3l. 13s. 6d. Augspurg, Bamler, MCCCCLXXIV.

6438 Romance.—Da Segunda Tavola redonda Libro Primeyro, wants title, 4to. vellum, of extreme rarity, 1l. 1s. 1567

6439 ROMANCE.—Libellus Richardi Judicis Venusii tractans de Matrimonio duorum senum videlicet Paulini et Pollæ, Fulcone Mediatore tribulationibus et diffortuniis multis fatigato eorundem nihilominus sponsalia ut promiserat perficiente, curious wood-cut title, 4to. wants three leaves, but very rare, 10*s.* 6*d.* - - - sine ullâ notâ

6443 ROMANCES OF ROULAND AND VERNAGU, AND OTUEL, printed from the Auchinleck Manuscript, 4to. bds. 4*l.* 4*s.* Edinburgh, 1836

 PRIVATELY PRINTED FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE ABBOTSFORD CLUB. It forms a valuable addition to the extensive series of works which have been printed of late years, and which reflect such high honour on the literary societies of the north. The Romance of Rouland and Vernagu turns on the expedition of Charlemagne to the Peninsula, and is by no means deficient in interest and vigour. Sir Otuel is an infinitely superior romance in every respect, written with great spirit and animation, and completes the story of Rouland and Vernagu.

The volume was printed at the expense of A. Nicholson, Esq.

6444 ROMANCES OF SIR GUY OF WARWICK, AND REMBRUN, HIS SON, in verse, now first edited from the Auchinleck MS. by W. B. D. D. Turnbull, Esq. with most interesting Introduction, giving an Account of the various Manuscripts and printed editions of these popular Romances. Also the several accounts of the most popular Writers upon them. It contains also some curious illustrations of Early English History, ancient manners, &c., with spirited engraved frontispiece, by C. K. Sharpe, Esq. and fac-simile of the ancient MS. and its illumination, by Mr. Smith, large 4to. pp. 524, most beautifully printed with a new fount of type, cast on purpose, from the Auchinleck matrices, a most splendid volume, 6*l.* 6*s.* Edinburgh, printed for private circulation, 1840

 This Metrical Romance is allowed to eclipse all the Club Books hitherto presented. It was printed under the sanction of the Abbotsford Club, and the impression strictly limited to one hundred copies, a number which will be very inadequate to the wishes of the literati, for no one can see it without admiration.

6445 ROMANCE.—ARTHOUR AND MERLIN, A METRICAL ROMANCE, now first printed, edited from the Auchinleck Manuscript, wood-cut, 4to. bds. 5l. 5s. - Edinburgh, 1838

 A splendid volume, privately printed for the Abbotsford Club.

 Sold for 7*l.* 10*s.* at Sotheby's, in 1824. This elegant poem is considered to be one of the most exquisitely beautiful compositions in the Latin language. It is the production of Francis Rosetti, a celebrated Veronese, and is dedicated by him to King Henry the Eighth.

The subject of the poem is the life of St. Ursula, the daughter of a British prince, who was martyred by the Huns, near Cologne, with several other virgins, her companions, about the year 383, and it comprises at the commencement a short description of the Island of Britain, "auro atque opibus felix."

It was written of this work by another poet, that,

"Ursula Francisci numeris celebrata Roseti
"Æneam obscuret forsan et Æaciden.
"Tu felix una in cunctis Verona, dedisti
"Mantua quod doleat, Smyrna quod invideat."

6551 SAGARD, LE GRAND VOYAGE DU PAYS DES HURONS, situé en l'Amerique, ou il est traicte de tout ce qui est du Pays et de gouvernement des Sauvages, avec un DICTIONNAIRE DE LA LANGUE HURONNE, 2 vols. 8vo. half bound, neat, 7*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* - - Paris, 1632

 EXTREMELY RARE AND SINGULARLY CURIOUS. THE DICTIONARY IS ALMOST ALWAYS WANTING. Richarderie had evidently never seen a copy of this work, for, contrary to his usual and satisfactory practice of detailing the title at full length, he only gives a meagre extract, without any mention of the dictionary. Thirty years ago, Lord Monboddo made diligent inquiries after the work; he could only hear of two copies, one in the Museum, and the other in the French King's Library. He borrowed it from the latter. "It was the perusal of this dictionary," says he, "and the account of the language prefixed to it, that first made me think of this work on the Origin and Progress of Language." Sagard's account of the Hurons abounds in curious and entertaining matter. "Their language is very defective. It has neither tense, persons, numbers, nor genders. The Hurons supply the deficiency by accents only, by means of which too they impart different significations to the same word. The philosopher, the critic, and the reader for mere amusement, will be amply gratified by the contents of this singular work." Col. Stanley's copy sold for 15*l.*

6835 Shakspeare.—Carion's three Bokes of Chronicles, gathered with great diligence of the best Writers; whereunto is added, an Appendix, conteyning all such notable thynges as be mentioned in Chronicles to have chaunced in sundry partes of the worlde from the yeare of Christ 1532, to thys present yeare 1550, by John Funcke, 4to. morocco, 3*l*. 3*s*. 1550

 The above curious and interesting volume formed a great feature in the library collected by Ireland, and palmed off upon the public as having been collected by Shakspeare; the present volume is enriched with MS. notes throughout, attributed to the immortal bard, with his name written on the title, and that of his patron, the Earl of Southampton, at the back of which is a note stating it to have been presented by him to Shakspeare. It is certainly one of the most curious memorials of this extraordinary deception which has occurred for sale. The Roxburghe copy sold for 4*l*. 4*s*.

6836 Shakspeare.—Account of the Miscellaneous Papers and Legal Instruments under the hand and seal of William Shakspeare, in the possession of S. Ireland, plates, folio, h. b. russia, 1*l*. 11*s*. 6*d*. - . 1796

 A great curiosity, as a record of one of the most impudent forgeries ever practised on the public.

6858 Sheridan's (Mrs. F.) History of Nourjahad, 12mo. very neat, marbled edges, 5*s*. 6*d*. - - 1813

 The first literary production of this authoress was a small tract on the stage, at the time of a violent dispute, which so struck the elder Sheridan, that he got himself introduced to his fair patroness, to whom he was soon after married; she was the daughter of Sir Oliver Chamberlaine, and died in France in 1767. The above little volume possesses a great deal of imagination, productive of an admirable moral.

6859 Sheridan's (Thos.) Dissertation on the Causes of the Difficulties which occur in learning the English Tongue, with Scheme of an English Grammar and Dictionary, 4to. sewed, 2s. 6d. - - - 1762

 This very curious tract is one of the popular legends imputing to the Jews the murder of a Christian child from hatred to the religion of its parents. This popular superstition was the subject of some of our earliest poems. See the Prioresse's tale in Chaucer, and the Jew's daughter in Percy's Reliques. In both the scene is laid in Italy.

6919 Simonis (Josephi) Zeno Tragœdia, item Mercia Trag. Romæ, 1648.—Comœdia Sacra cui titulus Joseph, per Cornelium Crocum, Paris. 1541, in 1 vol. 8vo. very scarce, 12*s*.

 "I send you two copies of a very honourable opening of my press—two amazing odes of Mr. Gray. They are Greek, they are Pindaric, they are sublime, consequently I fear a little obscure; the second particularly, by the confinement of the measure, and the nature of prophetic vision, is mysterious. I could not persuade him to add more notes." In another letter, Walpole says he found Gray at Dodsley's; he had brought his two Odes to be printed, which Walpole snatched out of Dodsley's hands, in order that they should be the first production of his press.

7176 Ode to Gray, on his Odes, by David Garrick, 24 lines, 4to. fine clean copy, very rare, 7*s*. 6*d*.

7216 Subscription, or Historical Extracts, humbly inscribed to the Rt. Rev. the Bishops, and to the Petitioners, showing the impropriety of their Petition, 8vo. uncut, 3*s*. 6*d*. 1776

 Presentation copy from the author to David Garrick.

7217 Suchen (Ludolphus de) von den gelebten land und weg gegen Jherusalem ven iren wesen und wund 'n die in dem grossem mor gesehen werdent, 4to. a remarkably fine and tall copy, morocco, gilt edges, a very rare edition, 4*l*. 4*s*.
(Augsb. Gunth. Zainer) MCCCCLXXVII.

 Ludolphus was the rector of the church of Suchen, and dedicates this narrative of his journey to Jerusalem to his diocesan, Baldwin, Bishop of Padeborn. The journey was effected in 1313, and the narrative is throughout highly interesting, and of much curiosity, as compared with the learned and elegant narratives of more modern travellers.

In calcographiâ Guil. Huyon, Lugdugn. 1520

 This edition is also of very rare occurrence; it is, says Renouard, a copy of the Junta edition of 1515, and was executed at the same press from whence issued the counterfeits of the Aldine publications; they are all, says that indefatigable bibliographer, of some interest, and more or less rare, but many of them are of tremendous scarcity, and are worthy the attention of collectors. Sold in Renouard's sale, in 1828, for 9*l*. 5*s*.

7223 Suetonii Vitæ Cæsarum, Notis Var. et Grævii, LARGE PAPER, 4to. fine copy, neat, 1*l*. 8*s*. - Hagæ Com. 1691

 The author was Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin, born in Ireland in 1620, from a branch of the noble house of Talbot. He was almoner to Catherine, queen of Charles II. and advanced the Catholic cause so much in Ireland, that Pope Clement IX. appointed him archbishop of Dublin; but the Protestants afterwards arrested him, and he is said to have died of want in a close prison about 1682. Richard Talbot, duke of Tyrconnel, one of his brothers, was viceroy of Ireland, where he opposed William III. and died in 1692.

7515 Theramo (Jacobi de) Belial zu Teutsch, with numerous extremely curious, and very spirited wood-cuts, 4to. fine copy, a rare edition, 2l. 2s. - Strasburg, J. Pruss, 1508

 This edition is apparently unknown to Brunet and other bibliographers.

7516 Theramo (Jacobi de) Belial, with numerous very curious and highly spirited wood-cuts, folio, extremely rare, 2l. 2s. Antwerpen, 1516

 This edition has apparently escaped the researches of bibliographers. The moral, or object in view, of this work, seems to be the inculcating of a system of law, or a knowledge of the rules of evidence, &c. for those destined to the legal profession. The machinery employed for the elucidation of the moral, or the conveyance of legal instruction, is sufficiently novel and daring. Belial represents Lucifer, and Moses our Saviour. These collocutors are brought before Solomon and others, who sit as judges in the cause; but the Chief Justice seems to be Solomon himself. The subject propounded is the redemption of man. It is, altogether, a most extraordinary work, and the pleadings and parleys which occur throughout are singularly curious.

 "Cette édition n'est guère moins rare que la précédente." — Brunet. The author of this very curious and interesting production flourished as a writer of considerable eminence about the middle of the 15th century, and held an office of trust in the court of King John the First, of Navarre. This work was composed in compliance with an express command from that monarch, for the instruction and amusement of his son, Prince Charles, the heir to the throne. In it, under the mask of a dream, the author has given some most excellent precepts of politics and morality, and has succeeded in combining with instruction, many capital subjects for amusement, and, in the opinion of many competent judges, it is thought to be one of the best written and most interesting Spanish books published in the 15th century.

7754 Tundal's Vision in Dutch, with curious wood-cuts, 4to. sewed, 15*s*. - - - Antwerpen, 1576

 Every page of this curious book is filled with such marvellous intelligence as was well suited to gratify the credulity of former times. The vision is stated to have taken place in 1149. Tundal is then described as a native of Ireland, of a noble family, cruel in action, handsome in person, of a brave courage, who, utterly regardless of the welfare of his soul, bestowed upon jesters and buffoons his superfluous wealth. He is supposed dead, but after his recovery relates his extraordinary visions, sufferings, &c. for his various sins. The visions are entitled, The Flaming Furnace, Frozen Lake, Valley of Iron, Forgers or Smiths, Infernal Well, Prince of Darkness and his Companions, State of King Tormarcus, (exceedingly curious,) Visions of the Saints in Glory, Of the Four Bishops whom Tundall recognized there, Of the return of the Spirit of Tundall to his Body.

per Jo. Numeister clericum Maguntinum, MCCCCLXXIX.

 This rare, curious, and splendid impression is one of the most interesting specimens of printing in the XVth century. It is an impression which, if we except the comparatively brief notice of it in the Gaignat Catalogue, will be found to be no where else previously described. "Nous observons," says De Bure, "que cette rare edition est demeurée jusqu'à présent inconnue à tous les bibliographes, puisqu'il n'en est faite aucune mention dans leurs ouvrages." It is printed with a type similar to that of the Mazarine Bible and of the Psalters of 1457 and 1459. It is altogether an exceedingly precious volume, and is rarely seen in the libraries of the most curious collectors.

7779 Turrecremata (Joannis de) Tractatus de Aqua benedicta, 4to. fine copy, in rich old morocco, gilt edges, bound by De Rome, very rare, 18*s.* Guldinbeck, MCCCCLXXV.

7791 Tyrannical Government Anatomised; being the Life and Death of John the Baptist, a Dramatic production, 4to. half bound, russia, 8*s.* 6*d.* - - 1642

 This volume is attributed by Peck to Milton, and has been supposed, with great probability, to have been intended as a hint to Charles the First, of the danger he then incurred from the counsels of some about him; and the history of the Baptist, who lost his head by the instigation of Herodias, seems figuratively to glance at the death of Lord Strafford, and at the influence of the queen.

 This is the first Greek Grammar explained in Latin, and so instantaneous was the sale at the time of publication, that Erasmus, in one of his letters in 1499, only two years after its appearance, states that he was unable to obtain the book. De Bure, strange as it may seem, was in a similar position. Speaking of this edition, he styles it "Edition très rare, et de laquelle nous n'avons vu aucun exemplaire: la mémoire nous en a été conservée par plusieurs bibliographes." After noticing the letter of Erasmus, he adds, "Il existe certainement peu de livres dans la litterature qui puissent prouver des témoignages de rareté aussi anciens et aussi authentiques." Renouard, whose fiats on matters connected with the productions of the Aldine family possess almost statutable authority, describes it as a book "extremement rare et recherché." Sir M. M. Sykes's copy produced 12*l.* 15*s.*

7822 Urbani Grammaticæ Institutiones, De Passionibus Dictionum et Tryphone, De Spiritibus ex Theodoreto et aliis, De Linguarum Varietate, etc. 4to. fine copy, vellum, RARE, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* - - Venetiis, 1512

 This very rare edition is apparently unknown to bibliographers. Neither Brunet nor Renouard makes the slightest mention of it. In the preface is a notice of Aldus, and the edition printed by him.

7823 Urbani Grammatica Græca, 4to. large copy, vellum, a scarce edition, 18*s.* - Venet. Rabani et Sociorum, 1545

7824 Urbani Institutiones Grammaticæ in Linguam Græcam, 8vo. large clean copy, calf extra, gilt edges, 18*s.* Venet. P. Manutius, 1557

 "Ce voyage est singulièrement recherché à cause de son ancienneté. On y trouve en effet les monumens moins dégradés par le temps et la barbarie des Musulmans. Les peuples qui se sont beaucoup plus mélangés encore depuis, y ont une physionomie differente de celle qu'ils ont de nos jours. Enfin, la naïveté du style qui parait avoir passé dans la traduction, donne un certain charme à la narration, et garantie en quelque sorte la veracité du voyageur."—Richarderie.

This edition, as described by bibliographers, is "de la dernière rareté." It sold at Sotheby's, June 22, 1818, for 18*l.* 18*s.*

 Antonio Blado d'Asola, according to Renouard, established himself as a printer at Rome with types furnished by Paul Manutius. From this circumstance, his publications are considered indispensable in an Aldine collection. This press existed in the same family during a period of nearly one hundred years, and the works which issued from it are distinguished for their beauty and correctness, as well as for their intrinsic merit.

7953 Verstegan (R.) Theatrum Crudelitatum Hæreticorum Nostri Temporis, 4to. fine impressions of the plates, 1*l.* 1*s.* Antverpiæ, 1604

 This rare and interesting volume contains a series of fine engravings, representing the barbarities said to have been inflicted by the Reformed upon the Catholics in various countries, with descriptions in prose, and metrical eulogies, besides a long introduction. The first portion comprises the persecutions in England under Henry VIII., the plates representing the pulling down, burning, and defacing the churches, crucifixes, images, vestments, &c., executions of Cardinal Fisher, Sir Thomas More, the eight Carthusians, John Forest, &c.; second, the same in the kingdom of France, with twelve plates; third, Holland, with five plates, (these would equally illustrate the reports of the other party against the great Duke of Alva); fourth, England under Queen Elizabeth, with eight plates, the last of which represents the execution of Mary Queen of Scots, at Fotheringay Castle.

7964 Viciorum Comestorium, large folio, FIRST EDITION, remarkably fine sound copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, RARE, 4*l.* 4*s.* Nurembergæ, MCCCCLXX.

 This is a singularly curious work, exposing the vices of the age in an unsparing manner. One chapter is occupied in endeavouring to prove that lawyers are "detestable to God," that they "defraud the just," are "more corruptible than others," and "are grievously punished." Another is against adultery, and another against the singing of women. The following also are treated on and reprehended: plurality of benefices, drunkenness, blasphemy, on expensive equipages, fornication, war, excessive eating, homicide, disobedience, envy, hypocrisy, anger, desire of wealth, the decoration of churches, building large houses, rebellion, dress, polygamy, &c. &c. It is a splendid specimen of early printing, and is the first book executed at Nuremberg with a date. Sold in Sir Mark Sykes's sale for 11*l.*

 Dedicated to W. Juxon, Bishop of London.

7994 Violet's (Thos.) True Discovery to the Commons of England, how they have been cheated of almost all the Gold and Silver Coin of the Nation, which hath been transported into Forraign Parts, and how the People of this Nation have been abused by light and clipped English Money, 12mo. fine copy, russia, very rare, 15*s*. - - 1650

7995 Violet's Warrants and Letters, with a List of Ships brought in as Dutch prizes, which have lately discharged in the High Court of Admiralty, presented to the Parliament of the Common-wealth, 1653.—Letter sent from a judicious Gentleman to his friend in London, relating to the Abuses practised on the Coynes and Bullion of the Commonwealth, transported to foreign parts, &c.; also the Causes and Grounds how the Mint in the Tower of London is obstructed by the ignorance of its Officers, 1653, folio, sewed, 10*s*. 6*d*.

7996 Viperani de Poetica lib. III. with the autograph of Is. Casaubon, and Manuscript Notes by him, Ant. Plantin. 1579.—Epitome Orthographiæ Aldi Manutii, with Manuscript Notes by Casaubon, ib. 1579.—Cassiodori de Orthographia Liber, edente Ludov. Carrione, ib. 1579, in one vol. 8vo. fine copies, vellum, 1*l*. 1*s*.

 Autographs of Casaubon are of very uncommon occurrence.

7997 Virgilius.—Eight leaves of a very early edition of Virgil, commencing with the 604th line of the Twelfth Book of the Æneid, and finishing with the 149th line of the Elegy on the Death of Mecænas, folio, in fine preservation, 1*l*. 1*s*.

 Supposed by Dr. Kloss to be a fragment of the first edition. It is apparently not the first, but a very early and undescribed one.

7998 Virgilii Opera, cum Annotationibus Christophori Hegendorphini, with numerous MS. notes and collations, by Hadrianus Junius and Albertus Hornanus, 12mo. bound in seal skin, 12*s*. Lugduni, 1556

8000 Virgilii Opera, cum Commentariis M. Servii Honorati, folio, half bound neat, rare, 5l. 5s.
Venet. per J. Rubeum, MCCCCLXXV.

 This edition, THE FIRST WITH THE COMMENTARY, is described by bibliographers, Brunet especially, as being both rare and valuable. Dr. Dibdin makes no mention of it in his Introduction to the Classics, neither is it in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana. The only other copy I can trace sold in Sir Mark Sykes's sale for 31*l.* 10*s.*

8001 Virgilii Opera, 12mo. neat, very scarce, 8*s.* 6*d.* Parisiis, 1540

 A very scarce edition, having Aldus's dedication prefixed.

8002 Virgilii Opera, curâ Jo. Ant. Meyen Bergizomii, 8vo. fine copy, morocco, gilt edges, 1*l.* 1*s.* Ven. Aldus, 1580

8004 Virgilii Opera nunc emendatiora, the true edition, 12mo. neat, gilt edges, scarce, 15*s.* Lugd. Bat. Elzevir, 1636

 For a description of this edition, so eagerly sought after by bibliographers, see De Bure.

8005 Virgilii Opera, notis illustrata auctore De la Cerda, 3 vols. folio, neat, 1*l.* 5*s.* - Col. Agrip. 1647

8006 Virgilii Opera, ex Antiquis Monimentis illustrata, cura, studio et sumptibus Henrici Justice, Armigeri Rufforthi Toparchæ, 5 vols. royal 8vo. beautiful copy, in the original russia binding, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* - - 1757-65

 An original copy, with fine impressions of the illustrations, the text entirely engraved upon copper plates; such beautiful copies are of very uncommon occurrence; the reprint from the old plates bears no comparison in point of excellence. Sold in Hon. Denis Daly's sale for 5*l.* 2*s.*, and in Roscoe's for 5*l.* 5*s.*

8007 Virgilii Georgica, cum Commentario Herm. Torrentini, 4to russia, gilt edges, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*
Davent. R. Pafraet, MCCCCXCVI.

 This copy was purchased for 2*l.* 18*s.*; it is apparently unknown to Brunet.

8008 Virgilii Bucolica, 12mo. scarce, 3*s.* Venet. Sessa, 1525

 "Volume très rare," says Renouard, who has printed the curious dedication of Cardinal Hippolito de Medici to Signora Giulia Gonzaga, and adds this exclamation: "Et c'est sous le privilege d'un Pape que ses gentillesses amoureuses d'un Cardinal sont imprimées, car ce volume est la copie d'une précédente édition de Venise, per Comin de Trino, 1540, en 8vo. avec les mêmes figures en bois."

8016 Virgil's Works, translated into English, with Notes by Pitt and Warton, 4 vols. 12mo. neat, 10*s.* 6*d.* 1763

8017 Virgil's Æneis, translated in Scottish verse by the famous Gawin Douglass, Bishop of Dunkeld, with a large Glossary and Account of the Author's Life and Writings, interleaved in 4 large volumes, atlas folio, russia, marbled edges, 18*l.* 18*s.* Edinburgh, 1710

 A most interesting and highly valuable literary curiosity, illustrated with many thousand additional corrections, notes, &c. collected from ancient manuscripts, at the expense of and by Lord Glenbervie, with a view to republish the work.

8018 Virgil.—Certain Books of Virgil's Æneis, in English Metre, by the Earl of Surrey, privately printed by the late Baron Bolland, for the Roxburghe Club, 4to. h. b. morocco, 1*l.* 1*s.* 1814

8019 Virgil.—The first four books of the Æneid of Virgil, in English Heroic verse, with other Translations and Poems, by Richard Stanyhurst, 4to. boards, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* Edinburgh, 1836

 Privately printed, and only fifty copies taken off. It is a valuable and interesting volume.

Southey says that Stanyhurst "is a very entertaining, and, to a philologist, a very instructive writer. His version of the first four books of the Æneid is exceedingly rare, and deserves to be reprinted for its incomparable oddity."

8020 Virgil's Bucoliks, otherwise called his Pastoralls, or Shepherds' Meetings, together with his Georgiks or Ruralls, otherwise called his Husbandrie, all newly translated into English verse, by A. Fleming, dedicated to the Archbishop of Canterbury, 4to. h. b. morocco, VERY RARE, 3*l.* 3*s.* 1589

 See a copy of the last part only, in the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica, priced 15*l.* 15*s.*

Vivis interprete, item Declamationes VI. cum Indice, 4to. fine copy, very neat, scarce, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* - Basileæ, 1538

 The above volume by J. L. Vivis, is of the greatest scarcity. The author was invited into England by Cardinal Wolsey, in 1523, having been previously (in 1517) made one of the first fellows of Corpus Christi College, in Oxford, and was appointed tutor to the young princess Mary (afterwards queen) daughter of Henry VIII. Of the works in the volume, the letter relating to the imprisonment of Francis I. who had been captured by the Milanese, is particularly interesting, as is also the letter to Henry VIII. on the Turkish war. The translations of Isocrates are addressed to the author's patron, Cardinal Wolsey, in a letter dated from Oxford, December 15, 1523, after which follows another letter to John Longland, formerly principal of Magdalen College, Oxford, then Bishop of Lincoln, and afterwards chancellor of the university.

8041 Vlas Bloem's (Louis) North Sea, containing the Demonstration of the Coast of Holland, the Texel Streame, the Mase, the Channel of Goeree, the River of London, and from the same to the River of Newcastle. With Courses, Distances, and Streames, as also the Purtraictures off the Lands.—The Second Book, contaigning the Demonstration of the Coast of Holland, Friesland, the Flye, Wattess, Holsten, and Jutland, to Schagen, &c. both parts with the maps, 4to. very fine copy, neat, rare, 2*l.* 2*s.* - - Amsterdam, 1656

sine ullâ notâ, circa MCCCCLXX.

8043 Vocabularius fructuosus omni ætati perutilis ex Papia, Britone, Catholicon, Alano, Ysidoro, aliisque quamplurimis magistris collectus, qui alio nomine Brevilogus nuncupatur, folio, fine copy, russia elegant, very rare, 3*l.* 3*s.*
sine ullâ notâ, sed Coloniæ, per Conradum de Hoemborch, MCCCCLXX.

8044 Vocabularius Rerum Latino-Teutonicus, folio, h. b. neat, 4*l.* 4*s.*
sine nota, sed typis G. Zainer, circa MCCCCLXXII.

 This volume is of the greatest rarity, and appears to have been hitherto totally unknown. The above copy cost in Marsh's sale 7*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*

8045 Vocabularius Rerum Latino-Teutonicus, folio, fine copy, h. b. neat, 2*l.* 2*s.* August. Keller, MCCCCLXXVIII.

 "This publication is not less curious and interesting than the preceding one (1469). Its rarity is probably greater, since it is the only production which bears the name of John Keller as the printer." Morelli also thus emphatically describes it, "Longe rarissimus hic liber est, qui unus ex officinâ Kelleri Augustana hactenus innotuit."—See the Bibliotheca Spenceriana.

8046 Vocabularius Latino-Teutonicus, 4to. very fine copy, russia elegant, extremely rare, 5l. 5s. Zwollis, MCCCCLXXIX.

8047 Vocabularius Latino-Germanicus, 4to. h. b. rare, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* (Aug. Vind. Keller) circa MCCCCLXXX.

 "Editio bibliographos latet, ergo rarissima."—Note by Dr. Kloss.

8056 Vocabularius Latinis, Gallicis, et Teutonicis verbis scriptus, with curious wood-cut border in the title, 4to. fine copy, very neat, rare, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* - Strasburg, 1515

 This edition is not mentioned by Brunet.

8057 Vocabulista utilissimus quinque Linguarum, Latine, Italice, Gallice, Hispanice, et Allemanice, valde necessarius per mundum versari cupientibus, 4to. fine copy, very neat, extremely rare, 2*l.* 2*s.* - - Norimb. 1529

 "Ce livre est rare."—Brunet. From the frequent perusal of works of this kind, from their being for a long time after publication indispensably necessary to almost every person, it is well known that early Vocabularies are among the rarest books to find, more especially in tolerable condition.

8058 Vocabulaire Nouveau, ou Colloque François et Breton, ouvrage très utile pour ceux qui sont curieux d'apprendre l'une ou l'autre de ces deux Langues, 8vo. scarce, 5*s.* Quimper, 1778

 A well-printed and correct pocket edition, which cost more than the above sum binding.

8061 Voltaire, Theatre, portraits, 9 vols. 8vo. fine paper, h. b. neat, uncut, 3l. 3s. - - Paris, Renouard, 1809

8062 Voltaire's Pucelle, or Maid of Orleans, with the Author's Preface, and Original Notes by Lady Charleville, privately printed, 2 vols. 8vo. very neat, EXTREMELY RARE, 4*l.* 4*s.* (Dublin) 1796-7

 "Nearly all the copies were destroyed, the freedom of the translation being considered injurious to the memory of Lady Charleville." Only five copies are said to have been preserved.—See Mr. Martin's Catalogue of Books Privately Printed.

8063 Vos (Jacobi) Oratio pro libro Estheræ, 4to. sewed, 3s. 6d. Traj. ad Rhen. 1775

8064 Vossi (Ger.) in Scipionis Somnium Commentarius, accessit Paraphrasis Variarum Lectionum ex Codd. MSS. 8vo. scarce, 15*s.* - Romæ, ap. hæredes Antonii Bladi, 1575

8066 Vox Populi, (Second Part of) or Gondomar appearing in the likeness of Machiavell, in a Spanish Parliament, wherein are discovered his treacherous and subtile practices to the ruine as well of England as the Netherlands, with curious engraved title containing his portrait, and other plates of the Jesuits in council, &c. 4to. sewed, 4*s.* 6*d.* - - 1624

8067 Vox Populi, expressed in 35 Motions to the Parliament, for Reforming the Present Corrupt State of the Church, 4to. scarce, 3s. - - - 1641

8068 VOYAGES.—BERNARDI DE BREYDENBACH PEREGRINATIONES in Montem Syon, ad venerandum Christi Sepulchrum in Hierusalem atque in Montem Synai, etc. with all the curious maps, views of towns, &c. folio, fine copy, vellum, very rare, 4*l.* 4*s.* Spiræ, 1502

 Numerous writers have uniformly agreed that there is no where in the world to be found a more curious and amusing book than the Travels of Breydenbach.

"In his portraits (if I may so speak), whether of things animate or inanimate, there is so much naiveté, so little apparent temptation to falsify, such a well-founded zeal in the cause of piety, and such a wish to be both instructive and entertaining, that we ought not to deny them the merit of probability. The wood-cuts, too, are of no ordinary merit. There is a freedom of pencilling and of execution, as well as skilfulness of grouping about the human figures, that are very rarely to be met with in publications of the same period. Even his shipping, although destitute of light and shade, is full of spirit and effect; and we see in many of his Venetian galleys, and in the figures which direct them, something like that life and spirit, which are the peculiar charm of Canaletti's pencil."

8069 VOYAGES. — Ludovici Varthema Patritii Romani, Novum Itinerarium Æthiopiæ, Ægipti, utriusque Arabiæ, Persidis, Siriæ, ac Indiæ intra et extra Gangem, in Latinum versum ab Archangelo Madrignano, folio, h. b. neat, wormed, rare, 2l. 12*s.* 6*d.* - - Mediolani, 1511

8070 VOYAGES.—Die new Welt, der Landschaften, und Insulen, so bis hie her allen alten Weltbeschrybern unbekant, Jungst aber von den Portugalesern, und Hispaniern im Nidergenglichen meer herfunden, &c. folio, fine copy, very neat, rare, 4*l.* 4*s.* Strassburg, 1534

8245 Wilson's Commendation of Cockes and Cock-fighting, wherein is showed that Cock-fighting was before the coming of Christ, black letter, 4to. fine copy, morocco elegant, gilt edges, extremely rare, 4*l*. 4*s*. - - 1607

 The author of this extremely interesting volume appears to have searched the Scriptures and the ancient classic authors, which he quotes as authority. Many of the parts are very curious, in one of which he notices King Henry VIII. took such pleasure and wonderful delights in cocks of the game, that he caused a most sumptuous and stately cock-pit to be erected in Westminster, wherein he might disport himself with cock-fighting among his noble and loving subjects, which led to the building of the cock-pits in the various towns, etc. He fully details the laws made, &c. for the good ordering of the same. The writer also details some wonderful battles at Norwich and Bury St. Edmonds, and many other very curious circumstances. The only other copy of this curious work which has occurred was sold in Col. Stanley's sale for 7*l*. 7*s*., and re-sold in the White Knights for 8*l*. 8*s*.

8246 Wiltshire. — Eleven most beautiful and elaborate Drawings of Ancient Seals, illustrative of this County, relative to Amesbury Nunnery, Edindon Priory, Salisbury College of Vicars Choral, Wilton Nunnery; St. Giles's Hospital, Wilton; St. Nicholas's Hospital, Salisbury; Stanley Abbey, and the various Abbots, mounted upon drawing paper, in 1 large vol. 4to. elegantly bound in morocco, gilt edges, richly tooled, 6*l*. 6*s*.

 Nothing can possibly exceed the beauty and fidelity which have been displayed by Mr. Howlett in the above drawings, which were made with a view to publication, and are truly worthy that object. Their value is equal to medals, serving to fix dates, &c., and is much enhanced by each drawing having underneath a description of the ancient document to which the original seal is attached, and from which the drawing was taken, also the date and notice of the archives in which it is to be found, and the date when the religious house to which it relates was founded.

8247 Wiltshire.—A Collection of upwards of Three Hundred Engravings, and a few Drawings, illustrative of this County, comprising numerous Views of Cities, Towns, Villages, Cathedrals, Churches, Chapels, Monasteries, Abbeys, Priories, Nunneries, and other religious houses, together with the numerous Ancient Monuments, Brasses, Inscriptions, Arms, &c. within the same; also numerous Views of the Seats of the Nobility and Gentry, numerous Views of Stonehenge, Ancient Houses, and other Remains of Antiquity, Coins, Medals, and various Figures found within the said County, and other objects of curiosity, forming a most valuable and interesting Collection to the Historian, Antiquary, or County Collector, for the Library or Drawing-Room Table, in 1 large vol. atlas folio, elegantly bound in morocco, with broad borders of gold on the sides, gilt edges, 18*l*. 18*s*.

 Formed by a well-known collector recently deceased, during many years' ardent research, regardless of expense. Many of the early engravings are very scarce, and the more modern are generally proof impressions.

8249 Wiltshire.—Speech spoken by T. Chadlicot, in the Behalfe of the King and Parliament, at Bishops Cannings, in Wiltshire, 4to. 1642.—Ordinance of the Parliament for raising Horse and Foot, for the Defence and Preservation of Wilts, and the Garrison of Malmsbury, with Names of the Committee who shall have power to let and sell Lands, &c. of all Malignants', Delinquents', and Papists' Estates, in that said County, 4to. 1644.—Account of the most terrible Tempest at Brinkworth, near Malmsbury, Wilts, destroying several Men, Women, and Children, a great number of Cattle, &c. single sheet, folio, 1706.—Avebury in Wiltshire, the Remains of a Roman Work, erected by Vespasian and Julius Agricola, during their several commands in Brittany, by T. Twining, with folding plate, 4to. 1723.—Case of the Sitting Members for Hindon, single sheet, folio, 1727.—Experimental History of Road Water in Wiltshire, by S. Williams, 8vo. 1731, an interesting collection to the county collector, 1*l.* 1*s.*

8250 Wiltshire.—Letter from Sir W. Waller of a great Victory he obtained near Malmesbury, with the names of the Commanders-in-chief which he had taken, and should send to Bristol and Gloucester, &c. 4to. scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* 1643

8251 Wiltshire.—Antiquitates Sarisburienses: containing a Dissertation on the Ancient Coins found at Old Sarum; the Salisbury Ballad; History of Old Sarum; Historical Memoirs relative to the City of New Sarum; Lives of the Bishops, &c. plates, 8vo. neat, 8*s.* 6*d.* Salisbury, 1771

8264 Winchester (Marchioness of).—The Phœnix Sepulchre and Cradle, in the Holy Death of the Marchioness of Winchester, by J. D. 4to. sewed, scarce, 5s. 6d. - 1691

8265 Windsor.—Letter to the Society of the Dilettanti, on the Works in Progress at Windsor, by Mela Britannicus, with three large folding plates, 12mo. bds. uncut, privately printed, 6s. - - - - 1827

 An attack upon the alterations then proceeding at the Castle. On the title are the following lines:—

"At Windsor Castle let us pass a day,
Where all cry out, 'What sums are thrown away!'
So proud, so grand; of that stupendous air,
Soft and agreeable came never there.
Greatness with Wyatt dwells in such a draught,
As brings all Brobdignag before your thought.
To compass this his building is a town;
The Windsor towers eye not with a frown,
Grandeur like his demands a mural crown."

8266 Windsore (Miles) Academiarum quæ aliquando fuere et hodie sunt in Europa, Catalogus et enumeratio brevis, dedicated to Sir Christopher Hatton, 4to. fine copy, in the original binding, very rare, 1l. 11s. 6d. - Lond. 1590

 At the end of this interesting tract is "Chronographia, sive Origo Collegiorum Oxoniensis Academiæ." This was mostly written by T. Neal, of New College, in Latin verse, to which is added a description of the Divinity and Public Schools, and epitome of the Halls. The verses on the founders are very interesting. The author had made collections for publishing a History of Oxford, which collections he gave to Twyne for his history. Among the productions of various countries, he mentions Aldus, Paul Manutius, Cardinal Bessarion, &c.

8267 Winer's (Dr. R.) Origin and Essence of a General Excise, a Sermon preached on a very extraordinary occasion, at a noted Chapel in Westminster, with curious frontispiece, containing portraits of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Dukes of St. Alban's, Kent, Gloucester; Earls of Nottingham, Rippon, Coventry, and various others, 4to. sewed, scarce and curious, 5s. 6d. - - 1732

8268 Winzet's (Niniane) Certaine Tractatis for Reformatioun of Doctrine and Maneris in Scotland, 1562-3, 4to. bds. 2l. 12s. 6d. - - Edinburgh, 1835

 PRIVATELY PRINTED FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE MAITLAND CLUB, AND SIXTY COPIES ONLY TAKEN OFF. It is a most important historical volume, as showing the progress of events in the establishment of the Protestant faith in Scotland. Bishop Keith calls it "one of the most valuable monuments of ecclesiastical affairs in Scotland, in the sixteenth century, so far as it contains and discovers the causes and manner of the eversion of the ancient form of religion in this kingdom, and treats the bishops and nobles of that time with a freedom which their unconcernedness for the religion they professed, and their vicious manner of living, did justly deserve."

8269 Wines.—Treatise of Artificial Wines, or a Bacchean Magazine, with Directions to make variety of sorts, and Directions for making low Wines into Spirits, by W. Y. a Spagyrical Physitian and Phylosopher, by Fire, 12mo. very neat, scarce, 10*s.* 6*d.* - - - 1690

8369 YORKSHIRE.—SEVENTY-FOUR MOST BEAUTIFUL AND ELABORATE DRAWINGS OF ANCIENT SEALS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THIS COUNTY, relative to York Cathedral, Dean and Chapter of Ditto, Vicars Choral of York, Arthington Nunnery, Roche Abbey, St. Mary's Abbey, Hospital of St. Peter's, College of All Angels, St. Thomas's Hospital, Swine Nunnery, Walton Priory, Kirkstall Abbey, Knaresburgh Priory, Convent of the Friars of St. Augustin, Nostell Priory, Salley Abbey, Pontefract Priory, Rievalls Abbey, Hospital of St. James, North Feriby Priory, Nun Appleton Priory, Nunkelyng Nunnery, Marton Priory, Markyke Nunnery, Melsa Abbey, Molesley Nunnery, Monk Bretton Priory, Mountgrace Priory, Newburgh Priory, Haltemprice Priory, Hampole Priory, Hemingburgh College, Joneval Abbey, Kingston upon Hull Priory, Trinity Hospital, Wilberfosse Nunnery, Wykeham Nunnery, Yarn Priory, Yedingham Priory, Bontham Hospital, Deacon's College, St. Clement's Nunnery, St. Leonard's Hospital, Beverley Collegiate Church, Beverley Vicars Choral, Bridlington Priory, Byland Abbey, Cottingham Priory, Coverham Abbey, Bolton in Craven Priory, Drax Priory, Ellerton Priory, with the Seals of the various Precentors, Abbots, Priors, &c. of the said Religious Houses, forming a most important Collection to the future Historian of this County, mounted upon drawing paper, in 3 large vols. 4to. morocco elegant, gilt edges, richly tooled, 36*l*.

 Every drawing in the above collection, as well as others in this catalogue, is a perfect gem of art; they are all executed with a view to publication, with a degree of beauty and fidelity to the original seal which cannot be surpassed. The value of the seal is well known, frequently serving to fix disputed dates, &c.; and the value of these drawings is much enhanced by each having a note describing the nature of the document to which the seal is attached, and from which the drawing was taken, with the date; also a notice of the archives where it is deposited, and the date when the religious house to which it relates was founded.

8370 YORKSHIRE. — SIXTY-EIGHT MOST interesting and valuable Tracts illustrative of this County, from 1641 to 1695, particularly during the Civil Wars of Charles I.—The Defence and Surrender of the Town of Hull, proceedings of both Armies in various parts, under Lord Fairfax, the Earl of Cumberland, Earl of Newcastle, Earl of Essex, Lord Leven, and other Commanders.—The King's Proclamations, Declarations, &c., also Petitions, Declarations, and Proceedings of the Gentry.—Relations of various Victories, and various others of Local Interest, fine copies, uniformly bound in 2 vols. 4to. morocco elegant, gilt leaves, 8*l*. 8*s*. 1641-95

 The above highly interesting historical collection must be seen to be appreciated: a brief list of the titles of each tract may be had for inspection.

8371 YORKSHIRE ILLUSTRATED.—UPWARDS OF THIRTEEN HUNDRED BEAUTIFUL DRAWINGS IN COLOURS, AND CHOICE ENGRAVINGS, MANY PROOFS WITH VARIATIONS, BY THE MOST CELEBRATED ARTISTS, OF CATHEDRALS, CHURCHES, ABBEYS, MONASTERIES, NUNNERIES, PRIORIES, AND OTHER PUBLIC BUILDINGS, VIEWS OF THE PRINCIPAL SEATS, MANY OF WHICH NO LONGER EXIST, RUINS, ANTIQUITIES, AND NEARLY EVERY OTHER OBJECT OF NOTE, FORMING IN FACT A COMPLETE PICTURE HISTORY OF THIS EXTENSIVE COUNTY, IN THE FINEST POSSIBLE STATE OF PRESERVATION, in 10 vols. large atlas folio, most splendidly bound in morocco, gilt edges, and richly tooled, 200l.

 The above unrivalled collection was formed during many years' ardent research and at great outlay, by Sir M. M. Sykes, Bart., at whose death they were purchased for £300 by the late John Broadley, Esq., by whose liberality the collection was not only much increased, but greatly improved by proof impressions of all the modern splendid engravings as they came out, not even sparing the most costly works, from which the Illustrations of Yorkshire have been obtained at a very great additional expense; since which it has been most splendidly bound. It is not only believed to be by far the most extensive collection which has ever occurred for sale, but it is presumed to be the most valuable collection known.

Robertson, in the History of America, speaking of the loss of part of the works of Cieza de Leon, says, "This loss is amply supplied by Don Augustin Zarate in the above work. Zarate was a man of rank and education, and employed in Peru as comptroller-general of the public revenue. His history, whether we attend to its matter or composition, is a book of considerable merit; as he had an opportunity to be well informed, and seems to have been inquisitive with respect to the manners and transactions of the Peruvians, great credit is due to his testimony."

8392 Zatrilla (Joseph) Engaños y Desengaños del Profano Amor, deducidos de la amorosa historia, que e este intento se descrive del Duque Don Federico de Toledo, etc. portrait, 2 vols. 4to. very neat, gilt edges, 1*l.* 1*s.* Napoles, 1687-8
